Marinite Angrily Scuttles Attempt To Replace Burns

McCarthy Post Taken Over By Grunsky In GOP Caucus

Marin's Sen. John F. McCarthy no longer is Republican leader in California Senate.

A caucus of Senate Republicans in Sacramento late yesterday chose Sen. Donald L. Grunsky of Watsonville as leader, deposing McCarthy from the position he had held for a decade.

The move was promptly interpreted in Sacramento as a renewed effort to oust Fresno Democrat Hugh Burns as Senate president pro-tempore. But if that is what it was, McCarthy quickly nipped the effort.

Asked whether he would support Grunsky for president pro-tempore, McCarthy replied: "Hell, no. I'm supporting Senator Burns for pro-tempore all the way."

SENATE SPLIT

The Senate is split 20-20 between Democrats and Republicans, and has been since Republican Milton Marks was elected from San Francisco in a special election in August. With such a split, Lt. Gov. Robert H. Finch — a Republican — holds the deciding vote. But a single GOP vote for Burns assures his keeping the pro-tempore presidency when the upper house organizes at the start of the 1968 session.

Thus McCarthy, though losing the Republican leadership, can prevent his fellow Republicans from deposing Burns. And he said he would do so.

12 YEARS

Grunsky, who has served 12 years in the Seante, made the announcement of his own selection at a news conference following the caucus. With him at the conference was Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino of Ojai, chairman of the Republican leadership committee.

McCarthy was not present. Lagomarsino estimated that Grunsky would have 17 firm GOP votes for president pro-tempore — not enough. He said he would support Grunsky for the office.

The president pro-tempore presides in the absence of the lieutenant governor.

Senator Burns said he would be a candidate for re-election, and said he felt sure of two Republican votes.

He did not say whose votes, but Sen. Jack Schrade of San Diego, like McCarthy a member

Eagle Gridders Reported Sold

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League were reported sold today for $14.5 million, the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin said.

The Eagles, owned by troubled financier Jerry Wolman, who bought the team in 1964 for $5.5 million, were reported sold to Norman Raab of New York City, prominent in the garment industry there.

During the past month, Wolman's financial empire by his own admission had been tottering, due to cash shortages running into the millions.

Summerskill Won't Resign; Defends Action

Reagan To Attend Special Trustee Session On Unrest

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO — The president of San Francisco State College says he won't resign over his handling of a wild student outbreak that closed the school Wednesday, classes resumed Thursday.

President John H. Summerskill has come under fire for refusing to call police to the 18,000-student campus to quell vandalism, looting and assaults.

California State College trustees said they will meet tomorrow to consider firing Summerskill. Assembly Speaker Jesse H. Unruh said yesterday he was inclined to think Summerskill should quit. On tour, Gov. Ronald Reagan said local police should be called to maintain college security.

WILL ATTEND

Reagan, visiting at Yale University, canceled a GOP dinner scheduled tomorrow night at Columbus, Ohio, to attend the session.

He called on the University of California regents and the trustees to take immediate steps to prevent a recurrence of violence.

He suggested new, clear guidelines "so that law and order can be preserved."

At a news conference on yesterday after classes were resumed, Summerskill, looking weary, told applauding students he did not intend to resign.

The campus has been seething in recent weeks over the suspension of four Negro students for beating up editors at the college newspaper, and action against two white students for publishing an off-color poem in a student-financed weekly. Demonstrators have set another protest for next Wednesday.

JOINT ACTION

In a joint action of the Black Students Union and the mostly white Movement Against Political Suspension, about 100 demonstrators broke into the college's locked administration building. Windows and doors were shattered. The school bookstore was looted.

The president said matters would have been a lot worse had he called uniformed police to the campus. He said he had conferred with San Francisco police on this decision.

Summerskill said students involved in the violence were being identified for disciplinary action, and he acknowledged that

College, Community Cooperation Urged

By FRANK FARRARA
(Last of five articles)

An engagement, if not a wedding, of the College of Marin and the community, is envisioned in the college's 12-year master plan.

The college "with its unchallenged opportunity for educational leadership" should expand its community services and participation.

This is the view of Management and Economics Research Inc. (MERI) of Palo Alto after a survey of employers and community leaders.

"The college 'has only begun to tap the resources available in the community,' and 'a much higher degree of community participation can and should be developed,'" MERI asserted.

Out of its interviews came "a picture of the college in the community which is a striking blend of the old and the new," it reported.

"The old is represented by the person who still thinks of the college in terms of 'Berkeley West.'"

"The new is represented by the employer who thinks of the possibility of sending his employees to the College of Marin for a specialized training program."

"Unfortunately there was too much of the old and too little of the new," MERI noted. "Not enough community leaders think of the College of Marin as the primary educational resource of the community."

The firm advocated community services ranging from

Medi-Cal Freeze Bill Passes 23-6

Special Session Is Over

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The legislature adjourned its month-long special session today after rejecting Gov. Reagan's plea for a free hand to cut free health care benefits to needy Californians.

Instead, Democrats and a cluster of Republicans imposed on Reagan their own solution to the Medi-Cal finance problem—a moratorium on any reduction in benefits until the legislature makes an intensive study of the program's disputed financial condition.

OPPOSITION TO REAGAN

It was a session marked by increasing Democratic opposition to the Republican Reagan's economy program and foretold of further problems for the governor when he tries to implement more "Creative Society" concepts in the 1968 regular session — starting in only one month. (See also Henry MacArthur column on page 42.)

Reagan was forced to accept the moratorium on Medi-Cal cuts at least until Jan. 31 after his own proposed solution was killed with dispatch in the Senate.

ASSEMBLY ACTION

The Senate pushed through the moratorium-study resolution on a vote of 23-6, with six Republicans sticking by the governor's original stand even though he already had agreed to hold off on the reductions.

The Assembly quickly gave the measure final passage, 43-0, concurring in a minor change made in the Senate.

Then, the Assembly rushed through a bill Reagan urgently wanted — one which closes a "loophole" in the governor's 1967 tax law. Reagan said action would have cost the state up to $50 million.

UNRUH MOVE

Democrats, led by Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, used this as another trump card to get their way on the Medi-Cal controversy—holding up passage until

Bridge Directors Re-Hire Painter

Fired bridge painter Jimmie Lee Wilkins was rehired today by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District after directors held a closed meeting marked by controversy.

When the directors announced that the meeting would be closed, Morris Evenson, secretary of Painters Union Local 4 in San Francisco and representing Wilkins, appealed to the latter's right to an open hearing under the state's Ralph M. Brown Act. Jerome B. White, attorney for the district, ruled that the Brown Act did not apply to this situation, but declined to explain why.

GOES IN

Paul E. Peterzell, an Independent-Journal reporter, forced his way into the meeting and advised the directors the meeting was illegal. George O. Bahrs, a special attorney for the district, asked for board permission to "throw out" the reporter, but did not receive it.

Board President John E. Nelson, who said earlier the meeting would be to discuss Wilkins' hiring, then told the reporter that "several hirings were to be considered."

20 MINUTES LATER

The directors emerged 20 minutes later and declared the 33-year-old Wilkins, a Negro, rehired in accordance with the demand of the State Fair Employment Practices Commission, which last week found the bridge district to have fired him illegally because of racial discrimination.

Bridge director Stephen C. Leonoddakis of San Francisco then made a motion, quickly defeated, for the rehiring of two other men fired with Wilkins, James Haugabook, 31-year-old Negro painter of Palo Alto, and Paul F. Powell, a union official and a Caucasian.

Haugabook was not fired on account of race, but for cause, the FEPC had ruled. Powell's case did not come before the FEPC because race was not involved.

SOCIAL SECURITY BOOST IS AGREED

House-Senate Compromises Gives Record Hikes, But Still Short Of LBJ Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Social Security bill containing the biggest cash benefit and tax increases in history—but still falling far short of administration proposals—appears assured of congressional approval.

Senate-House conferees reached final agreement on the bill last night after a marathon session. Sponsors expressed confidence Congress will send it to President Johnson next week.

Major provisions of the bill would:

$55 MINIMUM

Increase basic benefits for the 24 million Americans now on the rolls by at least 13 per cent with a 25 per cent hike for those at the bottom of the scale. The minimum monthly payment would go from $44 to $55. The boosts would be in checks distributed next month.

Raise the taxable base from $6,600 to $7,800 next year so that the maximum tax for a worker and his employer, now $290.40, would jump to $343.20 in 1968.

Limit federal grants for the medicare program of aiding indigent persons with their health costs in a move to check the steadily rising cost of this assistance.

OFF RELIEF

Write tight new restrictions and work requirements into the welfare program of Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

in an effort to get the recipients off relief and into jobs.

The final version of the legislation is far closer to the bill passed by the House than to Johnson's recommendations or the Senate version.

Many of its welfare provisions reflect increasing congressional concern over soaring costs of relief programs.

$3.6 BILLION HIKE

The bill would boost Social Security benefits $3.6 billion in 1969, the first full year of operation, compared with $7.1 billion under the Senate measure and $3.4 billion under the House version.

Taxes would be increased in 1969 by $1.5 billion over what present law would yield. But there still would be a $4.7 billion revenue-to-outgo surplus that year.

Johnson asked for a 15 per cent general increase in benefits and a $70 minimum. The Senate accepted this.

But the final increases included in the bill were much closer to the 12.5 per cent hike and $50 minimum voted by the House.

The conferees swept aside or scaled down dozens of liberalizing amendments put into the bill in the Senate. Among them were:

RETIREMENT AGE

Permission for men and women to retire at age 60 with actuarially reduced benefits. Now they must wait to age 62, except for widows who can get payments at 60.

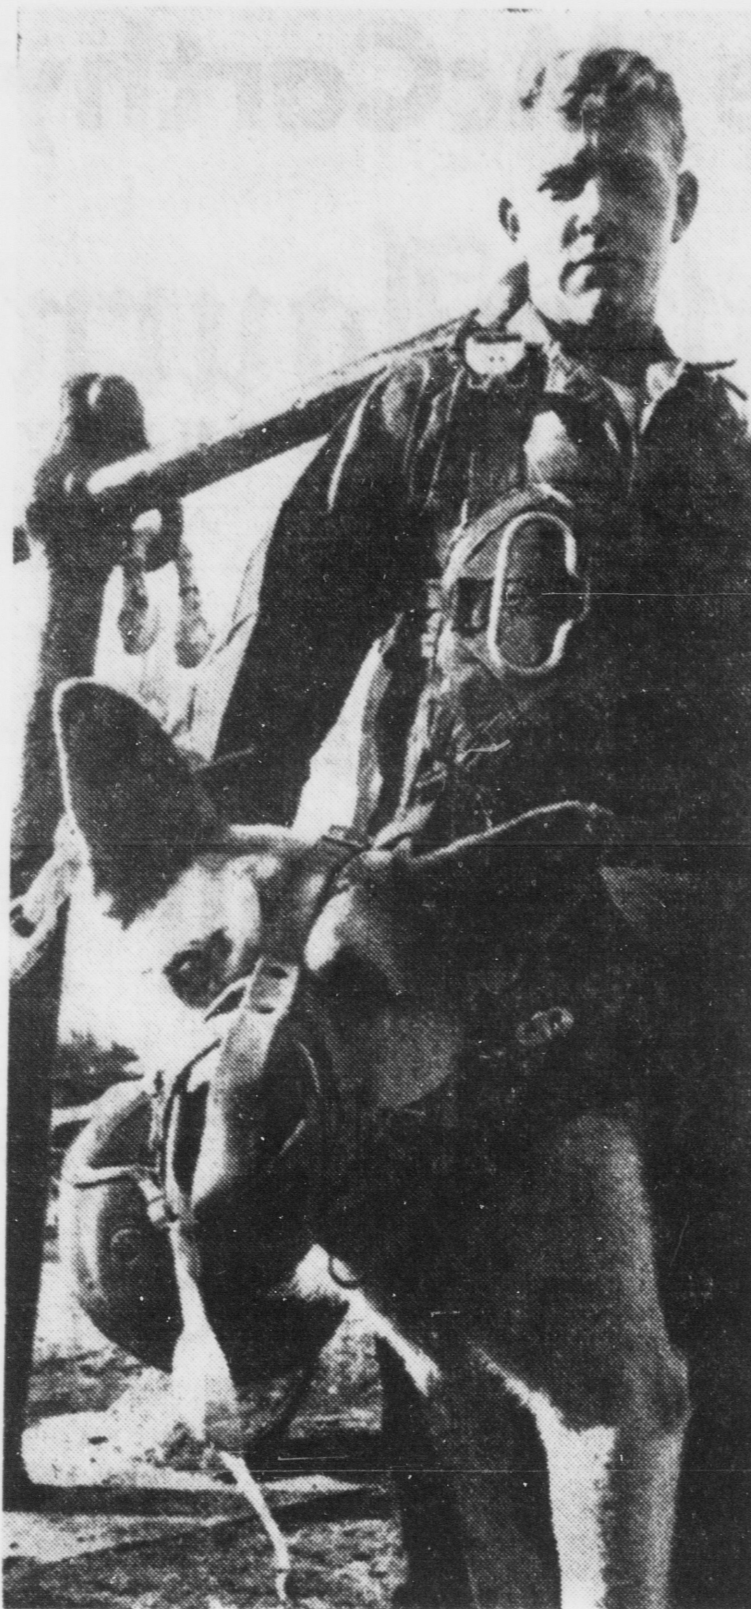

Allowance for retired persons to earn up to $2,400 a year without losing any benefits. The present limit is $1,500. The conferees adopted the proposed House figure of $1,680.

Disabled children's benefits up to age 22. Present law, which is retained, cuts these off at age 18.

PART COVERAGE

Special $50-a-month payments for persons 72 and over who lack sufficient coverage to get full Social Security. They now get $35. The conferees accepted the House figure of $40.

Provisions for disabled widows and widowers to get full-scale benefits equal to 62.5 per cent of the spouse's primary entitlement. The conferees took the House language which would give them 50 to 82.5 per cent of the entitlement—and then only if the person is age 50 or older.

Navy Idles 49 Warships, Shifts Crewmen To Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy, which is tying up 49 ships to free key men for Vietnam war duty, will discharge more than 30,000 enlisted men a month or two early, sources report.

The move, which reportedly will save about $18 million, apparently is part of a Defense Department drive to cut spending where possible in a bid to avoid a big supplemental money request to Congress.

The new development came to light yesterday, shortly after the Navy acknowledged 6,200 experienced petty officers and other enlisted men, chiefly from Atlantic and Pacific fleet ships, will be used for war duty. The manpower cut will be made up within a year, it said.

As the Navy explained it, the 3,700 petty officers and 2,500 other enlisted men will be sent to "meet additional personnel requirements in Southeast Asia," to staff the battleship New Jersey—now being prepared for Vietnam war duty—and to man the new destroyer tender Puget Sound.

Unions Cool To Johnson's Wages Plea

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Leaders at the AFL-CIO convention have criticized President Johnson's call for unions to restrain their wage demands. Some say they will ignore the appeal.

"It was pretty pious nonsense," Jerry Wurf, president of the State, County and Municipal Workers Union, said of Johnson's appeal. The President asked at a Washington conference of businessmen for business to hold the line on prices and for labor to go slower on wage hikes.

Union chiefs who will be negotiating major contracts in steel, telephone and aerospace industries during the 1968 presidential political campaign year also said they will ignore Johnson's plea.

Johnson brought steel negotiations into the White House in 1965 when he was trying to hold wage hikes to 3.2 per cent a year in the big "wage guideline" battle. A White House settlement then avoided a strike Johnson had feared would hurt the economy.

"I certainly would have been impressed if Johnson had twisted the arm of the steel companies," Wurf said of Johnson's call for wage-price restraint following a round of steel price increases. "As it is, it was pretty pious nonsense."

ROME (AP) — Pope Paul VI defied winter cold and rain today to wave from an open car to more than 5,000 Romans as he drove out for his first trip from the Vatican since his prostate operation five weeks ago.

With the temperature at 46 degrees and a cold drizzle falling, the 70-year-old pontiff began his busy public Christmas activities with a visit to pray beneath an umbrella at the statue to the Virgin Mary in the Piazza di Spagna, in the heart of Rome.

ROME (UPI)—A Rome court sentenced two men to seven years in prison yesterday for tossing a load of TNT at a bomb-proof show window containing $480,000 in jewels.

The glass did not break and the pair was caught a few minutes later when a motorist made an illegal U-turn and unwittingly blocked their getaway.

Women To Wait

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's eight million working women will have to wait until the nation's economy improves before they can expect legislation to require they be paid as much as men, the labor ministry announced Wednesday.

Police Check Handling Of Rodgers Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A police inquiry was under way today into the near-fatal attack suffered by singer Jimmie Rodgers and performance of three officers who saw him in his car.

Three patrolmen say they left Rodgers in his parked car to "sleep it off" before it was learned the 33-year-old entertainer had suffered a serious head injury.

The possibility of "improper action" by any of the officers was being investigated, inspector Pete Hagan disclosed.

The Police Department said its officers discovered Rodgers driving erratically on the San Diego Freeway early Friday and stopped him, then left him in his car.

Rodgers a day later underwent surgery to stop brain hemorrhaging. He was since reported in improved condition at Glendale Community Hospital. His injury apparently resulted from a beating.

Hagan said the 33-year-old singer had left a party at 3:30 a.m. Friday and started driving home alone when the off-duty officer saw Rodgers make two U-turns on the highway.

The officer called a patrol crew, who decided nothing was wrong and left him "to sleep it off," the department said.

Goldberg Details Cong's U.N. Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Viet Cong sent word to the U.N. secretariat this fall that it wanted to station representatives in New York for a year or two to "work principally at the United Nations" and also give newspaper interviews. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg told newsmen last night.

Goldberg said the Viet Cong didn't pursue the subject after the United States said they would be let in only if they came on official U.N. business and were invited by the Security Council or the General Assembly.

IN SEPTEMBER Goldberg told a news conference Secretary-General U Thant late in September sent him an inquiry received from the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong, through "an unnamed intermediary." He said the Viet Cong wanted to know "whether the United States would be agreeable to having two or three NLF representatives come to New York" and "would grant visas for this purpose."

Goldberg said after consulting Washington, he asked the U.N. secretariat to find out who the NLF representatives were, what kind of passports they would have, what kind of visas they wanted, what the purpose of their visit would be and whether talks with the U.S. government were intended.

SOME ANSWERS Early in November, he continued, the answers came back that two men were involved, that their names might be given later, that their passports would be North Vietnamese, that they wanted to stay in New York one year and possibly two, and that, while they were asking for no U.N. status, they desired "to work principally at the United Nations" but would not refuse radio, TV and press interviews.

There was no answer to the query whether they would talk with the United States, Goldberg said.

"Very promptly thereafter, early in November," Goldberg continued, "I communicated the response from my government in which I said that we would grant visas in connection with any U.N. business as required by ... the headquarters agreements. We have heard nothing since."

The headquarters agreement between the United States and the United Nations obliges the United States to admit U.N. delegates and "other persons invited to the headquarters district by the United Nations."

Goldberg said the United States would grant the NLF men visas if they were invited here by the Security Council or the General Assembly.

"The key points," he added, are that there have been no such invitations from the council, the assembly or the secretary-general, and Thant does not intend to issue any.

GOP's Moderate Governors Still Hoping For Rockefeller

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Party moderates among Republican governors meeting here are trying to stay flexible for the convention stalemate they think may produce Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as their 1968 presidential nominee.

While they had advice that they may have to resign themselves to accepting Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 candidate, as their nominee, several of the professedly progressive GOP state executives attending the winter meeting of their association in this balmy resort city weren't showing signs of taking it.

Among these, Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania announced he is running as a favorite son candidate in an effort to keep his state's hefty delegation uncommitted to any presidential aspirant until near convention time.

Asked if he wasn't leading the moderates into the same blind alley they encountered in the abortive attempt of former Gov. William Scranton to deny the nomination to Barry Goldwater in 1964, Shafer exhibited assurance that the progressives can bide their time next year until the convention meets.

In the same vein, Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland and Gov. Tom McCall of Oregon, both publicly pushing Rockefeller, said in separate interviews that they think as many as 16 of the 26 Republican governors would welcome Rockefeller enthusiastically as the nominee.

However, McCall sounded a warning note in this chorus of acclaim.

He said that if Rockefeller persists in his position that he is not a candidate and does not want to be president, "We may have to reconcile ourselves emotionally and ideologically to Nixon."

Students Prepare Holiday Concert

Works by Vivaldi, Grieg, Bach and Leroy Anderson will be on the program for the 19th annual holiday concert presented by San Rafael High School Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Featured soloists will be violinists Keith Stetson, Megan Roberts and Mark Jordan and ballerina Rebecca Jones.

The A Cappella Choir and the Chamber Choir will be directed by Byron Jones and the orchestra by Hugo Rinaldi. Junior assistant orchestra director will be Jeff Godwin.

Franchini Named To Chamber Post

William Franchini, owner of Home Market, was named by the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce yesterday to fill the vice president vacancy created by the death of Kenneth Adams. The terms expires Dec. 31, 1968.

Out-Of-State Car Drivers Warned

New California residents who are driving vehicles with out-of-state registration have been advised to visit the State Department of Motor Vehicles office in Corte Madera before the end of December to check on ownership and registration status.

Many vehicle registration cards and license plates from other states or countries will cease to be valid on Dec. 31, said Orin Riley, local office manager. Persons must either register as California residents or establish their visitor status.

Some car owners will have to write to former states of residence to get required certificates, so the motor vehicles department asks new residents to come to the office before the end-of-December deadline.

a faculty member was allegedly involved.

INSTRUCTION JOINS

John Gerassi, an instructor in international relations, addressed the crowd and participated in the invasion of the administration building.

Inspector Thomas Fitzpatrick of the San Francisco police intelligence unit said the department agreed with Summerskill's restraint. "This was a tactical situation," he said, "and Summerskill was displaying tactical restraint."

The local Federation Teachers commended Summerskill for not calling police.

At a boathouse news conference on Lake Merced yesterday, the Associated Students of San Francisco State College issued a tough statement calling on the Black Students Union to disavow the violence or be expelled.

Tomorrow's meeting of state college trustees was called by Don Hart of Bakersfield, chairman of the 18-campus system.

In an interview last night Hart said mob violence will be controlled on campuses "even if it takes violence to do it."

'NO SANCTUARY'

"The campus is no sanctuary," he added. He also blamed the recent violence on non-students and expects the trustees to take a firm stand against violent demonstrations at their emergency session.

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke said:

"I have directed that the state college presidents make every effort to apprehend all persons who violate the law in connection with any campus disturbances, regardless of whether they are students or non-students or faculty members. They will be dealt with appropriately."

Unruh, in his statement, also ordered a legislative investigation.

ASSEMBLY PROBE

The assembly, following Unruh's statement, voted 66-0 to authorize its education committee to start a probe of the violence tomorrow in San Francisco.

Chairman Leroy Greene, D-Sacramento, said, "We will not go there with preconceived ideas as to what the answers are, or even what the questions are. . . . But something must be done, he added.

Meanwhile, Dow Chemical Co. angrily says it won't return to California State College at Los Angeles where two of its job recruiters were chased off campus Wednesday by 300 anti-war demonstrators.

Rejecting his invitation to return, Dow wired college President John A. Greenlee:

"It appeared to us that our company representatives were abandoned to the mercy of a rioting mob while you and others responsible for law and order on the campus watched from the safety of another building."

The Dow plant near Los Angeles makes napalm used in bombing in Vietnam.

Sewer Connect Hearing Reset

San Rafael Sanitation District which was to have held a hearing last night into the annexation of a small piece of property on Bret Harte Lane postponed it until Wednesday.

On that day, a public hearing of objections to assessments levied for the Bret Harte Heights Sewer Assessment District will be held at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

The sanitation district agreed to hold the annexation hearing at the same time because of the unavailability of several members last night.

Bayside School Will Be Shut

Unsafe Bayside School in Sausalito will be shut and its 125 pupils moved into portable classrooms until a new building is erected.

This was decided last night by school district trustees, Supt. Phillip W. Schneider said.

He hoped bids could be asked next week on lease of five portables and temporary office space in order to close the school within 60 days.

Schneider said the extended cost of temporary quarters would be "at least $75,000," plus utilities. Trustees are expected to consider a new bond issue to replace Bayside, built during World War II and adjudged a fire and earthquake hazard in a recent structural study, Schneider said.

The school, housing only first grade pupils, was to be replaced, but a $1.4 million bond proposal was beaten at the polls in October.

H. M. Engle, a San Rafael structural engineer, studied the school and said it would collapse in a sharp earthquake. He also found the school had no sprinkler system and feared heating duct deficiencies would quickly spread fire.

He estimated the cost of renovations at $210,000.

Trustees discussed his report at a Nov. 29 meeting, and scheduled last night's session to consider closing the school.

MEDI-CAL

til the moratorium resolution got Reagan's grudging acceptance.

The legislature also indirectly criticized Reagan on the final day by adopting a resolution asking the governor to rescind reductions made in the program of health care for crippled children.

Reagan did get one of his Medi-Cal bills through, but it's only a minor one to speed up the billing time allowed in the health care program serving 1.5 million poor persons.

Despite the rough going for Reagan's requests, one of his aides said it could have been worse.

"We could have come out of it with nothing; with our hands tied," said Executive-Secretary William P. Clark Jr.

In the Senate, Republican John L. Harmer of Glendale called the Medi-Cal resolution "a meaningless gesture."

Harmer argued that, "It's not our prerogative to tell the governor 'you tie your hands for 60 days while we scramble around and try to find a way out of the mess we got ourselves into 18 months ago.'"

DEMO'S ANSWER

But Democrat George Miller Jr. of Martinez said the resolution is a reasonable answer to the Medi-Cal problem and allows Governor Reagan to get himself "off the hook" in the controversy.

"It seems to me you put the governor in a very peculiar and embarrassing position" by giving him no direction at all in the Medi-Cal situation, Miller said.

If cuts are found to be necessary later, "we all take the responsibility, not just the governor," Miller said.

Eight Republicans joined 15 Democrats in adopting the resolution.

OTHER BILLS

Other pending bills prepared to speed through the legislature following approval of the Medi-Cal proposal:

A bill Reagan wants that would close a tax loophole threatening to cost the state up to $50 million.

And a Reagan-sponsored measure to speed up the billing time in Medi-Cal so books can be kept more up to date.

Some Capitol observers viewed the Medi-Cal developments as the freshman governor's key legislative defeat in his first year of office.

But his executive secretary, William P. Clark Jr., said today, "We came out of it better than I thought we would."

Reagan added Medi-Cal to the special session agenda after the State Supreme Court ruled against his reduction last August in a number of "non-essential" Medi-Cal benefits such as dental work and eyeglasses.

Boy Arrested At Funeral For Father

STOCKTON (UPI) — A 16-year-old Stockton youth who killed his father during a domestic quarrel was arrested at the funeral yesterday by officers who said the father - son team was responsible for a brutal slaying in San Mateo County.

Pacific police said the youth, Robert Reeves, told inspectors he was present last January when his father killed Theodore Young, a window display decorator in Pacifica.

Young was trussed and stabbed repeatedly with a knife and partially dismembered with a meat cleaver.

Stockton police said Robert killed his father, Carroll, 41, with a 12 gauge shotgun in self defense as Robert was trying to protect his mother.

Inspectors Al Tebaldi and Paul Averitt quoted the younger Reeves as saying he told his father Young had made homosexual advances towards him.

CAMPUS

adults already at work, it suggested.

Some of the other programs recommended and comments relating to their need were:

OCCUPATIONAL GUIDANCE — Creation of an occupational information center where all persons, students and non-students, could get material and guidance about existing and future occupations.

SPECIALIZED SKILLS TRAINING — "The concept is that if a person comes to the school with the desire and capability to learn a particular skill, a way is found for him to learn that skill under circumstances convenient to him rather than to the school system. Frequently, the addition of one or two skills will mean the difference between employment and economic independence and unemployment and public dependence."

EMPLOYEE TRAINING — Providing training for local employers or industry groups on contract basis. "Sometimes the employers themselves are not capable of providing the required training" or facilities are not available or are unsatisfactory. "For example, one employer indicated he was now sending employees to a private school in San Francisco to obtain training."

TECHNICAL REFERENCE SERVICE — A system whereby local businesses and governmental agencies would more fully utilize the college library for reference works and consult with faculty members on technical problems.

BUSINESS SEMINARS — "Such programs are not widely available in Marin County at present. Many persons who wish to participate in them must travel outside the county."

MERI reported that "employers are enthusiastic, in most cases, about the possibility that the College of Marin may create programs that will be of benefit to them. In addition, many are willing to participate and contribute to the programs designed for general community betterment, whether of direct benefit to them or not."

Beautification Project Slated For Peninsula

Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission took steps last night to get part of a landscaping project on Tiburon Boulevard started.

Commissioners directed secretary Russell L. Melquist to get a permit from the Division of Highways for the work, following a planting plan laid out by former chairman Irving J. Moulin for a 100-yard strip across from Gilmartin Drive. Melquist said today.

Cost estimates for the work were requested from Melquist for the commission's Jan. 4 meeting.

Alan Thompson, new and seventh member of the commission, was seated last night.

Stand On Road

The Sleepy Hollow Homes Association voted last night to support the Marin Citizens Transportation Committee's stand against a freeway to the ocean and asked for county help in clearing debris from the community creek to prevent flooding.

Hiking Postal Rates Is Near Final Passage

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House and Senate negotiators have agreed on details of a bill to raise postal rates and the pay of government workers, putting the measure in shape for enactment next week.

The two chambers are expected to concur in a final version early in the week, giving President Johnson a chance to sign the bill in time for 2 million federal employees to get fattened checks before Christmas. Postal rates would not go up until Jan. 7.

CIVILIANS ONLY

The conference committee also has been working on a companion pay raise bill for servicemen, but only the postal increase-civilian pay measure was wrapped up yesterday.

As agreed on by the negotiators, the bill would give some two million government white collar and postal employees pay raises costing $2.6 billion over three years.

Postal workers would get a 6 per cent raise now and white collar workers would get 4.5 per cent. Both would be retroactive to Oct. 1.

Succeeding raises during the period would be keyed to correspond with general rises in pay scales of non-government workers.

ALSO INCLUDED

The conferees dropped a House provision that would have excluded employees of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) from the bill's pay raises.

Agreement was also reached on a $35 million-a-year boost in the federal employee's insurance program and on a special commission to review salaries of congressmen, judges and other top-ranking government executives every four years and recommend semiautomatic raises.

The postal rate provisions, effective next Jan. 7, would raise the cost of mailing a first class letter from 5 to 6 cents, post cards from 4 to 5 cents, air mail from 8 to 10 cents and air mail post cards from 6 to 8 cents.

Corporation Taxes

Corporations having a fiscal year coinciding with the calendar year must pay the fourth installment of this year's federal tax by Dec. 15, the Internal Revenue Service reminded businessmen today. The amount due is 25 per cent of the 1967 estimated tax.

First Abortion Law Challenge Tossed Out

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The first court challenge to California's month-old revised abortion laws was refused yesterday by the State Supreme Court, which declined to block, an abortion planned by the estranged wife of a police sergeant.

In a 5-2 decision, the court refused to issue an order preventing Mrs. Nancy O'Beirne, 26, from undergoing an abortion, recommended by three physicians under provisions of the new abortion statutes.

The high court action, in effect, upheld the constitutionality of the new laws, passed this year by the California Legislature after months of bitter controversy and the opposition of Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The woman's estranged husband, Raymond O'Beirne, 33, of San Jose, sought in Superior Court to halt the operation on grounds that it would "violate fundamental religious principles." O'Beirne is a Roman Catholic.

He also said the abortion would cause him "great mental and emotional distress and humiliation" and deprive him of the "companionship of the unborn child."

But the Santa Clara County Superior Court refused to halt the operation, as did the State Court of Appeal.

The matter was appealed to the State Supreme Court, which took action yesterday. The court's only comment was the word "denied" stamped on the case history.

The operation was scheduled for today at Kaiser Hospital in Santa Clara.

Planning Council To Be Discussed By Joint Body

Formation of a city-county planning council will be discussed Monday at the regular meeting on the City-County Services Committee at 8 p.m. in Room 343 of the Civic Center.

The planning council would study and make recommendations on area-wide problems that cannot be solved by any one city or the county alone. Fairfax, Mill Valley, Sausalito and Novato have indicated support for the planning council.

Other items on the Monday night agenda are:

A request to various cities to appoint a committee to study the redistribution of sales tax revenue; adding a police information network to drug abuse bureau agreement, and a report on the proposed countywide flood control zone.

Man has been making glass for 5,000 years.

Superliner For Jet Age To Carry 300

BURBANK (AP)—Wide as a two-car garage and long as a train—that is the kind of airliner you can be riding in five years from now.

A preview of one of tomorrow's jumbo jets, with room for up to 300 passengers, was staged last night by the Lockheed-California Co., which called its version the L-1011, pronounced "ten-eleven."

The preview was of a quarter-sized seats and furnishings, but even that was impressive: eight chairs abreast with two 20-inch aisles for refreshment carts, which spokesmen said, probably will be tended by mini-skirted hostesses.

The $50,000 model, over 40 feet long, depicted the passenger section of the 20x175-foot superliner which Lockheed Vice President Robert A. Bailey said will be in use by early 1972, at a cost of $16 million.

Lockheed engineers are discussing final specifications with 41 airlines, but this much is definite: It will have more than 2,000 square feet of floor space and be powered by three subsonic jet engines, one on each wing and the third in the tail.

Robert Thomas Bell, 47, of Santa Rosa, was fined $174 and placed on six months of probation by Marin Municipal Judge Hadden W. Roth for drunken driving Dec. 1 on Highway 101, where the California Highway Patrol arrested him.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Legislature heads for adjournment after compromise is reached on Medi-Cal financing controversy.
Legislators deplore this week's violence at San Francisco State College, and the Assembly launches an immediate probe of the issue.

THE GOVERNOR
Said violence at state college and university campuses must stop.

THE ASSEMBLY
Resolutions adopted:
Colleges — Directs Education Committee to investigate recent violence on state college campuses; HR 69, Unruh, D-Inglewood.

Adjourn — Adjourns legislative session at noon Friday; A-CR 17, Unruh.

Aviation — Asks federal government not to adopt special flight rules that would prevent some non-instrument rated pilots from flying in smog areas; AJR 6, Ketchum, R-Paso Robles.

THE SENATE
Bill passed:
Medi-Cal — Speeds up billing time for Medi-Cal benefits from an allowable six months to two months; SB 7, Burgener, R-San Diego.

Resolution adopted:
Migrant — Asks federal government to expand programs for migratory workers in California; AJR 5, Murphy, R-Santa Cruz.

Migrant Housing

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate yesterday approved, 23-2, an Assembly-passed resolution urging the federal government to expand construction of migratory family housing to help meet the needs of California agriculture.

Death Penalty Again For Slaying In 1963

Thomas L. Varnum, 27, was condemned yesterday for the third time to die in San Quentin's gas chamber.

A Los Angeles Superior Court jury deliberated for three days in the court of Judge William Keene before recommending the death penalty. Formal sentencing is set for Jan. 4.

Varnum was convicted and sentenced to death in 1963 for the slaying of Norman Merrill, 52, a gas station attendant.

The state Supreme Court reversed the conviction a year later on grounds he was not properly advised of his constitutional rights. A second trial in 1966 also resulted in conviction and the death penalty.

Last July, the high court reversed that decision on grounds an accomplice had testified about other offenses allegedly committed by Varnum.

As prison officials received the news of Varnum's impending return, two new inmates arrived

Session Postponed

A scheduled meeting of the Marin City Foundation Wednesday was postponed to Dec. 13 at the time and place still to be set, said Ida Geary of Mill Valley, a foundation member.

Fulbright Attacks, Dodd Defends War

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. J. William Fulbright opened a new attack today on President Johnson's Vietnam policies, charging that it is "an immoral and unnecessary war" in which the only thing America is proving is its willingness and ability to kill people.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said even if the war is won, this country could not take pride or satisfaction in the outcome because it could have been avoided.

"We still would have passed up opportunities which... would have spared us and the Vietnamese the present ordeal," the Arkansas Democrat said in a speech rekindling Senate debate on the war. Fulbright spoke in an almost empty chamber.

DODD ARGUES

Taking issue with Fulbright on the morality of the war was Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., one of the Senate's war "hawks." Dodd said in his prepared text that critics like Fulbright fail to say where they would draw the line against Communist expansion. Insisting the United States is committed to a "moral cause," Dodd pleaded: "Let us not seek an easy way out, because there is no easy way out."

'HONEST EFFORT'

Fulbright called for "an honest effort" to end the war, either through international machinery or by negotiations between the South Vietnamese government and the Communists.

Fulbright's speech was the first of two. He said his second would deal with the "growing military - industrial - academic complex, the mounting crisis of poverty, and the relationship of these problems" to the Vietnam.

U.S. 'DISBELIEVED'

The Arkansas senator said the United States was "disbelieved" around the world about some of its stated reasons for being in Vietnam because of their "implausibility and inconsistency."

Just like those who rooted for the Boston Red Sox against the St. Louis Cardinals, Fulbright said, other people oppose the United States because "we are top dogs and they fear our power."

All that is being demonstrated in Vietnam, he said, is "America's willingness and ability to use its B52s, its napalm and all the other ingenious weapons of 'counterinsurgency' to turn a small country into a charnel house."

Anti-LSD Plans

OTTAWA (AP) — An amendment to the Canadian food and drug act providing stiff penalties for the possession of LSD went to the House of Commons today after passage by the Senate yesterday. There was no debate in the upper house before the final passage.

Barber Dies From

Customer's Gun Shot

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Cornell Greenwood, a Richmond barber, who was shot after he accidentally spilled a few drops of hair oil on the burgundy colored, $250 suit of a teen-age customer, died yesterday.

Police held Kempy J. Jackson, 17, San Francisco, on suspicion of murder in connection with the shooting.

Store Loses $10 In Change Deal

Judy E. Wilcox of the Village Camera Shop in the Strawberry Town and Country Shopping Center is a little more careful at the cash register these days.

She told sheriff's deputies Tuesday night of a man who came into the shop and asked first for $5 in ones in exchange for a five.

This transaction complete, he offered 10 ones and asked for a $10 bill. Holding the dollar bills in one hand, she withdrew the ten spot and placed it on the counter.

Gesturing at the tenner and the ones, he said "Keep that and give me a twenty." She complied.

Her mathematics caught up as the man walked out the door, but a search of the parking lot did not turn up the $10-richer customer.

Alioto Planning Shakeup For Appeals Board

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A shakeup of the often-criticized Board of Permit Appeals is planned by Mayor-elect Joseph L. Alioto.

He said yesterday that several new appointments will be made to the five-member board. All terms expire Jan. 15.

The Planning Department accused the board recently of going over its head and granting zoning variances and reclassifying property without any legal right to do so.

This week, the board was criticized for overruling the Police Department and granting a taxicab driver's license to a man with an extensive police record.

Ex-Sausalitan Recites Viet Schools' Gains

The U.S. has helped to increase school enrollment, classrooms and textbooks in South Vietnam, according to Marcus F. Davis, former superintendent of the Sausalito School District, now serving as an educational adviser there.

"Since 1963 in the Mekong Delta area we have helped the Vietnamese increase their classroom construction by 52 per cent, pupil enrollment by 40 per cent and the number of teachers by 44 per cent," Davis said in a letter to the Rotary Club of Sausalito.

TEXTS INCREASED

"While all this was taking place we were able to put into circulation more than 14 million textbooks throughout the country and advise and assist in pre-service and in-service teacher training programs," he said.

There has been "a slow, but impressive movement toward improved curriculum on the elementary as well as secondary school level," Davis contended.

There also has been advancement in the fields of public health, agriculture and public safety in South Vietnam, Davis reported.

DISSENT NOTED

Davis said when he received word from the U.S. about "peace marchers, attacks on the Pentagon, discourtesies toward public officials, draft card burners and all the rest," he wondered why the public tolerated such behavior.

He called for a "united front" to convince the Viet Cong that we mean business, and a halt to "feeding that phony stateside information into Ho Chi Minh's efficient propaganda machine."

Davis said a slogan that could be applied to the U.S. stand in Vietnam is: "Winners never quit and quitters never win."

Davis is serving with an education advisory team under the Civil Operations and Revolutionary Development Support program. He served as president of the Sausalito Rotary Club in 1964-65.

TV Set Radiation Peril Check Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Electronics Industries Association has been asked by the U.S. Public Health Service to take part in a nationwide check for possible excessive radiation from TV sets.

The health service said Wednesday an extensive survey of TV sets in Pinellas County, Fla., indicates radiation danger found in some General Electric Co. color television sets may be an industrywide problem.

Excessive radiation from some big screen GE color sets was discovered last July. Since then, the health service said, 112,000 potentially dangerous receivers have been located and corrected. About 9,000 receivers have not been found.

San Rafael firemen yesterday freed a 2-year-old boy who somehow managed to get his leg stuck in the bumper of his family's car. The boy, Sean Niemi, of 73 Meadow Avenue, was unhurt — and his family was at a loss to explain how it happened, firemen said.

New U.C. President Calls For Leadership In Society

SAN FRANCISCO — Charles J. Hitch, incoming president of the multi-campus University of California, doesn't agree with the theory that education policies should make allowances for the ills of society.

He told the annual conference of the California School Boards and School Administrators Association last night that "a school should lead society, not merely adapt to it."

The speech was Hitch's first since his recent appointment. He called for "a more effective partnership" among all levels of education "if we are to act as positive agents."

Hitch said today's better prepared, more specialized students are creating innovation pressures that may well have as great an impact on universities "as the land grant legislation over a century ago."

But, he added, innovation takes money, "more money than society or the agencies are inclined to grant us."

Quality education—on all levels—is expensive, and we have had trouble making the point that education is not an expenditure of resources but rather an investment of, and in, society.

Election Probe
NEW DELHI (UPI)—An official investigation was reported underway today into newspaper charges that the Soviet Union spent $2 million in an effort to influence Indian elections last February.

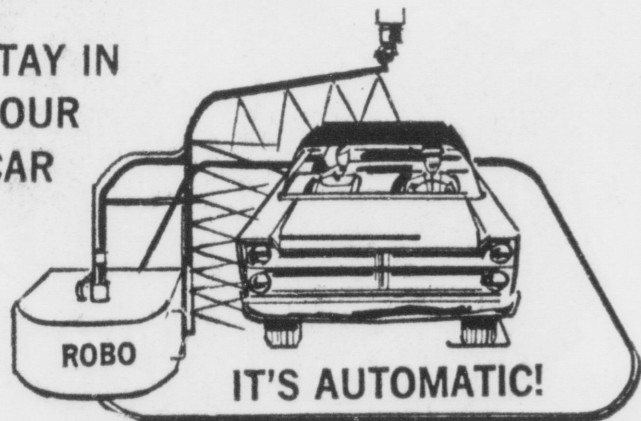

Maoist Paper Sees War During Spring

TOKYO (AP) — A Maoist Red Guard newspaper published in Canton predicts Red China will be at war by next spring and the fighting may turn into World War III.

In a translation which reached Tokyo today, the Oct. 7 edition of a tabloid published by the "Red Flag Commune" said China is besieged by reactionaries—the Soviet Union, Nationalist China, Japan and India and "the situation is very tense."

Bob's Of Marin Reflects Change In Cocktail Bar, Entertainer

Some changes have been going on at Bob's of Marin.

If you look in the cocktail lounge you'll find it quite a bit larger. The far wall has been removed and the lounge has been extended clear to the windows overlooking the Edgewater Inn garden with its colored lighting at night. A new piano bar has been installed at this side.

Wilbur Stump, formerly of the Fairmont Hotel, is the current entertainer. He plays from 8 p.m. to midnight on Wednesdays and Thursdays and from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Fridays and Saturdays.

Bob's of Marin will be closed Christmas Day, but manager Ole Madsen plans big things for New Year's Eve. He has arranged to have the New London Trio come in to provide the entertainment and music for dancing. And he and chef Art Hill have their heads together on a menu and package arrangement for the evening. This should be settled almost any time.

Meanwhile I suggest you make reservations early. He's talking about using the dining room instead of the banquet room for the New Year's party, but if reservations are heavy the latter may have to be used.

Dining room will be open New Year's Day, starting at 6 a.m. for breakfast.

Ole is an enthusiastic and capable manager. He has been at Bob's about 18 months. A native of Oslo, Norway, he was formerly catering manager with Holiday Inn in South San Francisco and he spent several years in Seattle.

FROM NOW ON you can expect many Marin dineries to set up plans for New Year's. Reservations are now in order at Taberna, the new restaurant on Vivian Way, San Rafael, off Francisco Boulevard.

Co-owner Jean Neill tells me the tab will be $20 per couple for a prime rib dinner, including champagne with the meal. The George Campanelli Trio, now playing here on weekends, will furnish the music and entertainment.

Meanwhile Taberna is now open on Sundays from 1 p.m. Starting this Sunday there will be a jazz session, probably from 3 to 7 p.m. — also a spaghetti feed which you'll be able to order at $1.50, including salad and garlic bread.

Daily lunch menu is being changed slightly to give more representation to those specials — which appeal mostly to men. Think of what you like most for lunch — then go in and ask for it. Now is the time to get your preference on record.

SAME CHEF — but the wrong recipe seems to have been given:

Now cooking at Jean's Kitchen in Ross is George Hooper — not Hopper. He was formerly head chef at Bret Harte Inn, Grass Valley — that part was right. This is part of the Handery Hotel chain. First cook at Denby's — that checks off okay. He was also with the Saddle and Sirloin, Santa Rosa and the Hotel Saint Claire in San Jose. And he had his own restaurant in Calistoga.

But last week's mention had him mixed up with the wrong fighter. He cooked steaks for Rocky Marciano — not Rocky Graziano. And he helped a few other boxers keep in diet training.

CALL ME right away if this one is wrong:

New chef at the Seven Seas in Sausalito is George Booker, formerly at Sally's Valhalla. He has added deviled crab to the Seven Seas' already sumptuous menu and he's a specialist on preparing frog legs and some other fancy dishes.

I don't know what he can do for the bouillabaise — which seems to me to be outstanding now. Maybe Paul and Della De Moss should keep that as it is.

IT'S A GOOD crab season this year, and if you've an appetite for crab cippino try it one of these Friday nights at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax — prepared to specifications of the old Ghiringhelli family recipe.

WILBUR STUMP
Entertains at Bob's of Marin

LE VIVOIR — the charming French restaurant in Sausalito's Casa Madrona Hotel, is closing for its annual refurbishing — which is starting a little earlier this season.

Sunday will be the last day. Present plans call for a reopening on Jan. 16 with a new menu. The Deschamps family will take a holiday in Southern California.

THE SILVER DOLLAR INN at Point Reyes Station is in the course of sale to Dick and Coral Flint of Inverness. They have been operating it for Mrs. Bessi Dains for the past few months and hope to assume ownership by the first of the year.

The bar is open as usual, but food service at the present time is confined to steak sandwiches and other sandwiches and snacks from noon to about 8 p.m. The menu may be expanded later.

OWNERS Stan Mulligan and Charlie Barrett of Latitude 38 in Sausalito expect to open another steak house this month — probably between the 15th and 20th.

This one will be called Altitude 38, since it's to be located at Big

Redwood Students Set Constitution Study

A committee has been named by the executive council of the Redwood High School student body to revise the school constitution, school officials said today.

The group, headed by Tony Bricca of Ross, has been asked to update the constitution, including the incorporation of clubs and student representation for better student government.

Bear Lake, where the snow falls heavily every winter. It should be a year-round operation.

Meanwhile in Sausalito there is music for dancing all through the week at Latitude 38. Mel Hoover and vocalist Maurice Davis entertain from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Mondays through Saturdays. Abe Battat does the same on Sundays from 4 p.m. to midnight.

A SLIGHT CHANGE in entertainment hours at Cherish Inn in Strawberry finds the Dick Saltzman Duo now playing from 7 p.m. to midnight Fridays and Saturdays. Organist Lee Lees plays the console in the lounge Sundays through Thursdays from 5 to 10 p.m.

Style shows continue at lunchtime on Wednesdays — and also Friday nights at dinner time.

PARTY HOLDERS are missing a good bet if they don't consider the banquet room at Gregory's in the Paradise Shopping Center.

This is a beautiful spot for a gathering. I think you could manage a group of up to 50 quite comfortably — maybe 60. Pick your entrees from the menu but if you're smart you'll confine your choice to two or three selections — say steak or lobster. You won't be disappointed.

Subject to prior reservation you can often book this room for a Friday or Saturday night.

GREENBRAE LANES has come up with a clever idea for young bowlers on a tight budget — called a Dinner League.

This will be on Tuesday nights, when young couples can come in, put their babes in the nursery, have a complete dinner in the coffee shop from 7 to 8:45 p.m. at $4.50 for the two of them — then start their bowling at 9 p.m.

THAT UNIQUE businessmen's organization with the 23-syllable name and 32-name membership — the Society for the Preservation and Protection of Executive Secretaries — will hold its annual meeting again this year at La Petite Auberge, taking over the entire place next Thursday noon. La Petite doesn't ordinarily open for lunches, but will for a crowd this size (multiply the membership by two to include the secretaries).

This is one association with an ideal annual agenda. It holds only one business meeting a year. And that business is to eat heartily of the foods set forth — and ogie each others' secretaries more so.

Wednesday night — not Friday, which removes the jinx.

THERE WILL BE another anniversary party Thursday night at Rubini's in Fairfax. This is the restaurant's ninth, according to partner-chef Gordon Jones. Cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and buffet start at 6 p.m. Lowell

Hawk will keep things lively at the piano.

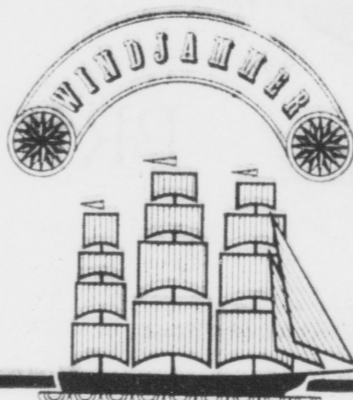

Congratulations to Gordon and Dick Templeton on conducting a fine dining operation over the years. I hope that during 1968 they will be able to start some of the remodeling and enlarging that has been planned.

Study Session Held Needed On Sewerage

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission agreed last night it would need a series of special sessions before making any recommendation on a county-wide sewerage master plan.

After receiving a sewerage study for the county, Marin supervisors asked the commission to consider governmental agencies to administer sewer services.

John F. Barrows, acting executive officer, recommended that the two major water districts in Marin, the Marin Municipal Water District and the North Marin Water District "ultimately provide sewerage service in all of Marin County."

The fundamental advantage would be that no new districts would be created and the Killing Trial On For Redding Boy

SACRAMENTO (AP) - William Tidwell Jr., 21, of Redding, went on trial today on charges of murdering a Lassen County ranch couple and a Humboldt County man in northeast California last August.

Tidwell and his brother, Robert, 19, are charged in the shooting and knifing deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Levey Deforest of Susanville, and Keith Utterback of Hoopa, in Humboldt County.

They were arrested about two weeks later in Redding. Robert is scheduled to go on trial Jan. 16.

Bolinas Combining Urged But Stinson Area Excluded

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night approved consolidation of the Bolinas Community Public Utility District and the Bolinas Fire Protection District.

In the process it by-passed a proposal by John F. Barrows, acting executive officer, that a single new district be formed including the two Bolinas districts and the Stinson Beach County Water District.

TWO DISTRICTS
The vote to consolidate the two Bolinas districts was 4-1 with Commissioner Jan Paul Dyk, a Sausalito councilman dissenting.

As proposed, the smaller Bolinas Community Public Utility District would expand its boundaries to those of the fire protection district, which would be dissolved.

A sticky problem arose when Barrows reported that the proposed new utility district boundary would extend into territory of the Stinson Beach County Water District, east of Shoreline Highway.

Dyk felt that "pushing" the consolidation now might disrupt the "ultimate desire" to have the Bolinas and Stinson Beach districts join together for water and sewer services.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr noted that the consolidation would bring the assessed valuation of the Bolinas Community Public Utility District nearly equal to that of the Stinson Beach County Water District. This, he felt, would induce cooperation between the two districts.

Commissioners agreed that the territory east of Shoreline

Highway should remain in the Stinson Beach Water District for water and sewer service, and receive fire protection only from the proposed new Bolinas Community PUD.

Hugh Dougherty, president of the Stinson Beach Water District, recommended that the commission take no action on the consolidation proposal until "it sees what comes out of present cooperative efforts" between the Bolinas Community PUC and the water district.

'A GOOD JOB'
Attorney Robert A. Smallman, representing the water district, opposed dissolution of the fire district. "This little fire department is doing a good job, and I doubt there will be one cent of saving by combining," he said.

Attorney Ronald Schenck, representing both Bolinas

New Novato Sewer Link Under Study

The Novato Sanitary District may hold a public meeting next month to explain a proposal for sewers in the Indian Valley-West Novato area, the board decided last night.

Carlos E. Gonzalez, civil engineer, has almost completed a preliminary study of the project, according to Charles Joseph, engineer-manager of the district. Next step will be for the district to plan formation of an assessment district to install sewers in the area, Joseph said. The Novato Sanitary District board also:

CAR — Authorized purchase of a sedan at $1,750 through the state procurement office.

CHARGES — Granted an exception of $692 to Harold C. Frazier for collector sewer charges on Castlewood Unit 2. Frazier had paid this under a previous area charge.

STUDY — Received study on sewage disposal plans for the San Anotonio Creek area but took no action pending further study.

BILLS — Paid $52,194 in monthly bills.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned to Dec. 18 as the next regularly scheduled meeting would be on Dec. 25.

Low Bridge Bid

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Division of Highways has opened a low bid of $127,436 from Madsen Construction Co., Napa, for replacing a narrow bridge across Novato Creek on Novato Boulevard, about two miles west of Route 101 in Novato with a wider, concrete structure on improved alignment.

Minority Hiring To Be Discussed

David Johnson, field representative of the Bay Area Urban League, will speak to the employment committee of the Marin County Human Rights Commission Tuesday night at the Civic Center.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in Room 413, with chairman Richard Harding presiding.

Johnson, an unsuccessful candidate for sheriff in San Francisco, will discuss job development in Marin and the possibility of a job fair to bring employers and prospective employees together.

Novato Bond Issue Gets Chamber Nod

Novato Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday voted to endorse the $8,000,000 bond issue for streets and parks in the special Jan. 23 election.

Endorsement came after a discussion on whether to endorse just the street part of the issue or both, according to Jack Kinney, president.

The board voted to hold a fund raising dinner-dance on Jan. 20 at the new Moose Lodge at the former Hilltop Restaurant to help defray the deficit of last year's Western Weekend Inc., he said.

The annual dinner-dance with the Air Force Association will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the officer's club at Hamilton Air Force Base, it was announced.

The chamber has received $640 in contributions for Christmas decorations, according to Kinney.

The board accepted the resignation of Irving Links, but did not name a successor.

The chamber-sponsored Christmas pageant took in $300 with expenses of around $200. The remainder will be used for next year's pageant.

Husband Reports Wife Missing

O'Donnell told deputies he and his wife had moved to Tiburon only three weeks ago.

He said his wife has blond hair and blue eyes, five feet, eight inches tall. When last seen, she was wearing an orange dress and tan raincoat and brown rimmed glasses, her husband reported.

Rusk Echoes Johnson In U.S. Involvements

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, echoing the words of President Johnson earlier this week, said today the fidelity of the United States is honoring its agreements abroad was the "principle pillar of peace" in today's world.

Those who would appease the North Vietnamese, Rusk told the AFL-CIO convention, have not learned the lesson of Hitler. These are the same people, he said, who urged before World War II that this nation should "give Hitler another bite and maybe he'll be satisfied."

The ideas of the administration peace critics, Rusk said, were the same ideas "that led us into the catastrophe of World War II."

But, Rusk warned, the world cannot risk the threat of another global conflict because "there won't be enough left from which to draw a lesson."

The secretary of state's lengthy speech reiterated President Johnson's entire policy on Vietnam, plus a glowing account of the administration's foreign policy achievements elsewhere in the world.

Basically, it was the same speech the president delivered Monday night to a group of business executives at the State Department.

Rusk said his critics have accused him of over simplifying U.S. involvement in Vietnam, "and for that I'm not going to apologize."

Every night, Rusk said, the president must make the following decisions: "here comes another battalion down the road from the north—do you get out of the road or do you meet it?"

Rabbi Resigns

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Rabbi Irving I. Hausman has resigned as spiritual leader of the 1,400-member congregation of Temple Emanu-El, it was announced yesterday.

Drainage Costs To Be Shared By Fire Board

Directors of Tiburon Fire Protection District agreed last night to contribute half the cost of installing drainage from the firehouse on Tiburon Boulevard to the outlet near the Windjammer Restaurant on Main Street.

The decision followed a lengthy discussion between the directors and Tiburon's City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose, according to secretary Wellman Topham.

No figures were set, as the city has promised to work out the contributing cost of adjacent property owners in the downtown drainage project, Topham said.

The board committed the district to share the cost with the city for an 18-inch drain, a catch basin in front of the firehouse and a flood-gate, according to Topham.

The district has been concerned about downtown drainage because of flooding in the firehouse yard after rainstorms for several years.

Sierra Club Blasts Logging Firm For Defying Park Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Sierra Club has accused Georgia-Pacific Corp. of defying the public interest by logging in an area that may be included in a redwood national park.

Dr. Edgar Wayburn, president of the club, said the company was operating on an assumption that "what's best for Georgia-Pacific is best for the people of the United States."

Sheppard Seeks Peace Corps Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard has applied to become a Peace Corps volunteer, it was learned today.

The 43-year-old former Cleveland osteopath mailed his application from Europe. It was received at Peace Corps headquarters earlier this week.

Sheppard was convicted in 1954 of second degree murder in the bludgeoning slaying of his wife. After he served nine years in prison, a federal judge ordered his release.

The company denied the accusation, holding that its logging operations are outside the 64,000-acre "compromise" two-unit park approved by the Senate Nov. 1.

The Sierra Club and the company both agree the logging is going on, but outside the boundaries of the Senate act.

The controversial area is the McArthur-Elam Creek section, one of the proposed segments to be added to the park. The Sierra Club said logging should be suspended in all potential park areas until the House acts and final boundaries are determined.

Action by the House on the bill is expected early next year.

NOVATO NEEDLERS

Sisters Get Top Sewing Prizes

The two sisters, accompanied by their mother, came into the office with big smiles lighting their faces.

And Sharon and Shirley Bomio, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Bomio of Novato, had reason to smile as they continue to take honors in sewing competition, not only in Marin County but also in the District 8, Make-It-Yourself-With-Wool competition, which comprises five counties in the Bay Area.

The latest award for Sharon, 17, was as senior winner in competition held in Santa Rosa sponsored by the North Bay Wool Growers Association. She was junior winner last year.

Following in her sister's footsteps, 16-year-old Shirley was the junior winner at the Santa Rosa competition.

The girls' hobby of sewing began seven years ago for Sharon and six years ago for Shirley as their mother was determined her girls should learn to sew because she couldn't.

They are both members of the Novato Olompali 4-H Club of which Sharon is president and Shirley is corresponding secretary.

Most of their sewing for the past three years has been mostly without instruction and they make practically all their own clothes and also sew for their mother.

THE GIRLS, BOTH MEDALISTS in Marin County, four years for Shirley and three for Sharon, have had to sew on a competitive basis in 4-H competition, which has made them very careful in their sewing, Mrs. Bomio said.

Shirley is taking Sewing 1 in her junior year in high school where she received an "A", which attests to the fine experience she received in 4-H work.

Sharon is a senior and class treasurer. She is taking a class in tailoring design in school and hopes to major in home economics in college.

THE COSTUMES that won them their awards at Santa Rosa were cut from the same pattern, but both girls changed the pattern somewhat in details such as pockets and stitching.

On a trip to San Francisco, Sharon saw a coat and dress in a department store with a value of $150 for the coat and $50 for the dress. In checking through patterns she found one similar to the one in the city. The girls then made their coats at a price of $70 and the dress for $25.

Sharon's coat is brown wool with the dress in vanilla wool with brown and black checks.

Shirley's coat is similar in bright navy blue with a yellow dress.

THE GIRLS ALSO keep busy with baby sitting. Shirley has a steady job from 4 to 6 p.m. each week day and Sharon baby sits occasionally to buy materials for sewing. Another Shepherd of San Rafael was the junior alternate winner at Santa Rosa. Shepherd, daughter of the David Rosa.

SHIRLEY, left, and Sharon Bomio model the costumes they made that won them the junior and senior awards at the District 8, Make It Yourself With Wool competition in Santa Rosa. Sharon's coat is brown with a dress of vanilla wool with brown and black checks and Shirley's coat is in bright navy blue with a yellow dress. (Russ Booth photo)

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Retirement Is Hard For Man Who Has No Leisure Interests

DEAR HELEN:

Since I retired, I have done next to nothing for the past two solid months, solid because of the difficulty in getting through them. I can say here and now that taking it easy can be the hardest thing you ever tried to take. After a few weeks of "Utopia" with no problems or pressures, you start coming loose at the seams. You awake realizing you're not going anywhere, you're already there. Your day is done before it starts.

You eat a bite of breakfast, lower yourself into the easy chair, but you're already rested, and rest becomes unbearable. So you decide to go down town, but everybody is inside, working. Then you head back to the arm chair and television.

The longer boredom runs, the faster you deteriorate. Your body becomes sluggish, your mind stagnates. You lose the will or energy to do anything and you can no longer endure doing nothing. You begin eating for a pastime, and you start to bulge.

With no problems on your mind, the mind itself becomes the major problem. You re-evaluate your concept of work and it finally dawns on you that those aspects of life commonly known as negatives are necessary, for without them there is no appreciation of the positive.

I've just about decided that having a headache is better than having nothing. At least you'd be happy when it stopped. Perhaps it's the same with a job you dislike.

May the good Lord have mercy on those who anticipate the joys of retirement. In the words of Tennyson: "How dull it is to pause, to make an end, to rust unburnished, not to shine in use." —BACHELOR

DEAR BATCH:

You've got a classic case of retirement-recreation, aggravated by lack of wife who usually keeps a newly retired man as busy as he hasn't time for regrets.

I'm going to let my readers answer your letter. They'll give you a shot in the arm, a kick in the pants and probably several hundred formulas for pulling out of your temporary slump. I'll print the best and send the rest on to you. H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'm the kind of person who acts first and thinks later. So when I saw the neighbor boy throwing rocks at our cat, I ran out and gave him a hard swat. I know I should have just talked to him, as he is really a good kid and my son and he play together quite well. His mother and I have been the best of friendly neighbors, but now I'm afraid that is all changed. She probably hates me for spanking her son. I'm scared to face her for fear she will snub me. It seems like the two boys haven't played together so much lately. Maybe she is keeping her boy away from mine.

How can I make amends — REPENTANT NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR:

Amends for what? The boy was throwing rocks at your cat; you gave him a swat — a fair exchange, and I'm sure your friendly neighbor agrees. In fact, she may be avoiding you because she fears you won't accept her apology.

It's even quite possible her son hasn't told her of the incident.

Invite her in for coffee, and, I'll bet you'll soon be laughing over this imagined feud. — H.

MARIN DATEBOOK

Tomorrow:

SANTA'S STOCKING Stuffer Sale by Sausalito children, 10 a.m., Central School, Sausalito. Handmade gifts by children of Sausalito Elementary School District.

Vary Ambrosia

Ambrosia is a traditional Christmas dessert in the South. Usually made with oranges and coconut, ambrosia has many variations such as this: Pare and section 6 large oranges. Combine orange sections with ½ cup of flaked coconut and 1 (8-ounce) jar of red maraschino cherries, drained. Chill thoroughly. Heat ½ cup of orange marmalade and ¼ cup of maraschino cherry syrup until marmalade melts. Spoon chilled fruit into sherbet dishes and spoon over hot marmalade sauce. Top with dollops of sour cream. Makes 6 servings.

A PERFECT Christmas decoration for table or mantle is this cookie house. It is made by covering a six-pack soft drink carton with aluminum foil, then decorating with cake frosting, candy and cookies. The centerpiece is a colorful addition to any Christmas decoration theme.

The Blueprints For Cookie House

This is a Christmas cookie house. With just a few minutes effort, you can duplicate this delectable holiday centerpiece.

Cover an empty kingsize six-pack soft drink bottle carrier with aluminum foil. Use a shirt cardboard or piece of construction paper to form the roof; cover with foil and fold over the container. Attach graham crackers or cookies to sides of the container with prepared frosting or your favorite confectioner's sugar variety.

Chocolate mint shingles decorate the roof of the house.

To attach the candies, apply scallops of frosting to the foil, then press each mint into place.

The gay roof border consists of fondant balls or any firm ball-shaped candy, which can be attached and decorated with a tiny swirl of frosting.

For the chimney, use frosting to attach and decorate a single graham cracker section. Miniature chocolate-coated candies serve as the windows and decorative base of the house. The cobblestone path leading to the house is pink after-dinner mints.

Simple construction paper cones — touched with frosting, lightly dusted with coconut, and placed over foil-covered soft drink bottles — become snow-mottled pines surrounding this delightful house.

Just Like Apples

Try baking fresh pears just like fresh apples for desserts. Dust with brown sugar and add a dash of butter.

Chickens, Turkeys Excellent Bargains

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Week-end shoppers will find ample supplies of meat and poultry and good supplies of some fresh fruits and vegetables at food stores and supermarkets. Still leading the lists of excellent protein bargains are broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys. Other meat buys available in quantity in all areas are ground beef, steaks, and roasts, pork roasts and spareribs, and ham and bacon. Fish sticks and portions join frozen fish fillets and steaks as being abundantly available in all areas.

CABBAGE AND potatoes are still the vegetables in most general supply in all areas. Lettuce, onions, and radishes are in this category in some areas. Apples, grapefruit, and oranges again are leaders among the abundantly available fruits.

IN THE WEST: Prices on fresh pork are generally lower around San Francisco, where skinned hams are down 4 cents per pound, loins are down 1 to 3 cents, Boston butts are 2 to 3 cents less, and spareribs are 2 cents lower. Fresh picnic hams are up 8 to 9 cents in Los Angeles. Prices are mixed on smoked pork cuts in all California markets; hams are down 2 to 3 cents in the Bay Area, but slab bacon has advanced 5 to 6 cents per pound. Most beef cuts are up slightly around San Francisco—ribs are 7 to 8 cents higher -- but beef prices are generally mixed around Los Angeles. Calf is down 2 cents per pound in Southern California markets, and ready-to-cook chicken fryers have declined a cent in Los Angeles.

In Portland, grade AA large and medium eggs have dropped 2 cents per dozen.

Fruits and vegetables in best supply in Western markets include apples, bananas, grapefruit, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, and potatoes.

BEST FISH buys for the West are: Pacific oysters, rockfish, Dungeness crab, sole, ocean perch, halibut.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM FOR CHRISTMAS

San Francisco—Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight or your waistline is larger than 32 inches, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girdle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga.

MARIN FILM FARE

Sonny And Cher Making Screen Debut In Novato

By LES DARD

Here is a look at what's doing on Marin screens this weekend. Note that several theaters have closed until the holidays.

NOVATO THEATER

The film debut of the popular pop-singing husband and wife team Sonny and Cher, "Good Times," is on screen for the weekend. It's calculated to please the young set, but can provide diversion for the older audiences, too.

The picture is a riot of rhythm, color and sound — low on acting but high on entertainment, and distinguished for its rollicking tempo and pop-art patina. There are at least six songs, including the team's biggest hit, "I Got You, Babe."

And, believe it or not, there's a plot. It's a self-inspired spoof about a successful young singing duo who decide they want to be movie stars, too. Actually, Sonny does the pushing.

An unscrupulous film tycoon (George Sanders) signs them up and insists they work on a ridiculous melodrama. Sonny, all the while, is imagining himself in romantic roles that never come to pass.

Co-featured is "The Perils of Pauline," a revival of the early-century screen heroine who escapes miraculously from one danger after another. Pat Boone and Pamela Austin.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

The story of a simple man caught up in the dehumanizing events of World War II is told poignantly in "The 25th Hour."

Anthony Quinn stars as a simple Romanian farmer falsely declared a Jew by the local police chief — who covets Quinn's blonde wife, Virna Lisi. The bewildered man is sent to a slave labor camp, beginning an eight-year odyssey of hardship before seeing his wife again.

Co-featured is Robert Vaughn, starring as a spy in "The Venetian Affair," but a role far different from his TV series. Elke Sommer adds to the intrigue, and the scenery.

NORTHGATE THEATER
Still remaining is the Distinguished film "A Man for All Seasons."

The 16th Century drama concerns Henry VIII's efforts to divorce his queen and marry Ann Boleyn. His chancellor and friend, Sir Thomas More, will not sanction his actions and resigns.

MOTOR MOVIES
A gripping trip back to Chicago's gangland era is the fare in "St. Valentine's Day Massacre."

In lead roles are Jason Robards as Al Capone and Ralph Meeker as Bugs Moran.

Co-featured is the film version of television's debonair sleuth, "Gunn," starring the same Craig Stevens.

101 DRIVE-IN

Lee Marvin plays a vicious avenger and Angie Dickinson his delicious decoy in "Point Blank." There's an added attraction: it's filmed in and around San Francisco.

RAFAEL THEATER
Holding over is Paul Newman in "Cool Hand Luke," story of a reckless young man who lands in a chain gang.

This is not one of Newman's great roles, but it is absorbing and he performs well.

LARK THEATER
Would you believe the W. C. Fields phenomenon? Two of his pictures are now in third and final week here.

Those in middle ages will remember the two classics, "Bank Dick" and "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man."

Heart Patient Is 'Beautiful' To Her

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Mrs. Louis Washkansky visited her husband yesterday for the first time since his heart transplant operation and found him strong, cheerful and "just too beautiful."

"I'm feeling fine," Washkansky told his fellow South Africans in a nationwide broadcast from his bedside.

The 55-year-old wholesale grocer's physicians, encouraged by his excellent progress, allowed his wife to enter sterilized room 274 at Groote Schuur Hospital for a four-minute chat after one of the surgeons interviewed Washkansky for the South African national radio network.

"He is so much better than I expected," Mrs. Washkansky said. "He is so cheerful and bright. I was astonished by his strength."

Wearing a surgical gown and mask, she entered her husband's room with instructions not to kiss him. He reached out for her arm, she said, and told her: "Darling, I am so happy to see you."

Labor Pact Helps BART Obtain Funds

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Bay Area Rapid Transit District was qualified for $54 million in federal grants today after its board approved a labor agreement protecting the jobs of employees of present transit facilities.

The board agreed yesterday to accept the policy statement, which it had been under consideration for a week.

The agreement called for absorption into BART's work force of any employees of existing transit systems in San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa counties who lose their jobs when BART becomes operational.

It also set up negotiation machinery, including "final and binding arbitration" procedures.

Approval of the agreement makes BART eligible for a federal grant of $26 million this year and possibly $28 million next. Terms of the agreement are standard requirements for federal money.

The directors made one change, adding the BART policy of hiring employees without regard to race, color or ethnic background.

Double Slaying Trial Near End

LOS ANGELES (AP)— "The defense rests."

After 14 weeks and 122 witnesses, the concluding stages have been reached in the double murder trial of suspended Deputy Dist. Atty. Jack Kirschke.

Final arguments are expected to run through Tuesday, with the six-man, six-woman then to get the case.

Kirschke, 46, charged in the shooting deaths of his dress-designer wife, Elaine, 43, and Orville Drankhan, 41, in the Kirschke's Long Beach apartment last April.

The defendant, who did not take the stand in his own behalf, says he was driving to Las Vegas, Nev., to a Rotary convention when the two died.

High-Cost Rites
SWANSEA, Wales (UPI)—It will cost the British government $12 million for ceremonies in July making Prince Charles officially the Prince of Wales, officials announced yesterday.

New York Antidraft Siege Fades; Arrests Challenged

NEW YORK (UPI)—Antidraft demonstrators, apparently abandoning the avowed purpose of their four-day protest, today made only a half-hearted attempt to lay siege to the Armed Forces Induction Center in downtown Manhattan and then marched away, presumably to picket elsewhere.

There were sporadic minor clashes between police, demonstrators and counterdemonstrators as the band of about 2,000 marchers moved uptown in what was to be the final day of protest in support of "Stop the Draft Week."

Mayor John V. Lindsay, meanwhile, demanded a full report from the Police Department on why about 100 demonstrators were taken into custody "for no apparent reasons" yesterday near the United Nations.

The protesters were herded into police vans and, after being photographed at headquarters, were released without being charged. Many of those picked up have threatened to file false arrests suits and Lindsay, who was in Washington today, said through a spokesman he wanted an explanation of the incident.

Only a few persons were taken into custody today compared to the more than 300 who were rounded up yesterday in a mass crackdown connected with President Johnson's visit to the city for the funeral of Francis Cardinal Spellman.

A swordfish's speed was clocked at 60 miles an hour.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

This fall a week-long observance officially marked the 150th anniversary of the founding of Mission San Rafael Archangel. The actual anniversary date, however, will occur during the coming week. In honor of that occasion, your Independent-Journal Marin Magazine tomorrow features a special article by Lucretia Hanson Little on how the present concept of the mission evolved through sketches and paintings. Behind it are years of research.

Tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement continues its popular "Profile of a Marinite" series with one of its most interesting subjects to date. The story of Patrick J. Kirrane has been written by reporter Betty Frost. It is the story of a man deprived of the ability to walk by illness — but a man who, nevertheless, has become not only a successful businessman, but also one of the Bay Area's most successful skippers of competitive racing yachts.

Airport Tenant Proposals Due

The Marin County Aviation Commission will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Room 343 of the Civic Center to review proposals made by fixed base operators who want to set up business at the county airport in Novato.

Both Marin Aviation Inc. and Navair Inc. have submitted firm proposals to install hangars of office and classroom space.

Francis E. Torr, airport manager, will make a progress report on the new county airport.

Rodgers C. Broomhead of Ross has been appointed to the Republican State Central Committee of California by Marin GOP Chairman Charles Michals.

Broomhead is finance chairman of the county central committee and has been an associate member of the state committee.

Marin In East Bay Park Area Balloons

Informal mention of the possibility of Marin's being annexed to the East Bay Regional Parks District ballooned yesterday into a report in an Oakland newspaper that discussions toward such annexation were under way.

The Oakland Tribune quoted Marin Supervisor Peter H. Behr as saying he had discussed the idea with parks district officials and was in favor of it, and said the discussions were confirmed by Clyde Woolridge, chairman of the parks district board.

Both today denied it.

Behr said he told Oakland Tribune reporter that the possibility was mentioned in a panel discussion in which he participated along with the director of the East Bay Regional Parks District. He said he told the director that if he were interested in getting Marin to join, "he might send us some information."

Woolridge said his only knowledge of such a suggestion was that he overheard Richard Trudeau, assistant director of the parks district, comment about talking with citizens from Marin. He said it was his impression that the Marin residents were without official status.

The East Bay Regional Parks District, which has preserved extensive lands in Alameda and Contra Costa counties, was long headed by William Penn Mott, now the state director of beaches and parks.

Tiburon Council Sets Hearing On Greyhound Fares

A hearing will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in city hall by the Tiburon City Council on a proposed increase in Greyhound bus fares.

Greyhound lines is proposing a five-cent fare raise for local residents commuting to San Francisco, which would increase the 20-ride commute books from 54 cents to 81 cents per ride, according to Asst. City Mgr. Russell L. Melquist.

City Engineer Ray W. Foreaker said today he will ask for council approval to proceed with converting perpendicular to parallel parking on 250 feet of Tiburon Boulevard in the downtown area.

A hearing is expected to resume on a proposed sign ordinance introduced Nov. 6 and a community antenna television franchise ordinance for Clear View Cable Systems is up for adoption.

Dredging Firm Asks Extension

Moe Sand Co. of Oakland, is asking a three-year extension of its permit from the Army Corps of Engineers to dredge sand from the bottom of San Francisco Bay, between Angel Island and Point Cavallo, south of Sausalito.

The firm has had previous permits for more than six years, an engineer spokesman said. Dredging is performed by a dredge moving at about two knots an hour and no anchors, buoys, or cables are used.

Objections to the extension may be made on grounds of navigation, recreation, conservation, pollution, aesthetics, ecology or other reasons. Objections must be submitted in writing in triplicate to the Corps of Engineers, 100 McAllister Street, San Francisco 94102 by Jan. 5, 1968.

Plea Date Set On Child Beating

Robert William Corteau, 48, of 535 Eldridge Avenue, Novato, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Wednesday on a misdemeanor charge of child beating.

Corteau was cited by Novato police for allegedly whipping his 9-year-old daughter with a belt Sunday. The child reportedly had bruises on her legs, body and face.

Corteau is to enter plea to the charge Dec. 13.

DEMOS DIFFER ON McCARTHY'S ROLE

College Audience Mostly Applauds Dove
Stand Over State Leader's LBJ Support

By DAVID DIETZ

To Marin Democrats opposing the Vietnam war, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy is the conceivable Presidential candidate.

Or is he?
Robert L. Coate, Northern California chairman for the Democratic Party, does not think so. But his opinion was in the minority last night as about 150 persons came to the Fine Arts Auditorium at the College of Marin for a debate on "The Future of the Democratic Party in California — Is There an Alternative to LBJ?"

'HIS BIG TOE'

"So far he's enjoying himself; he's sticking his big toe in the water to test the situation," Coate, who generally supports President Johnson's Vietnam policy, said of McCarthy. "He has not decided whether to be a candidate for President."

Coate also criticized the Minnesota's Vietnam position thusly: "I know what he's against; I want to know what he's for. I'm looking for a constructive, not destructive, program."

DOVE ARGUES

Much of the audience, however, was warm to the opinions of Coate's opponent, Fred Warner Neal, professor of government at Claremont College and a war dove. Neal believed McCarthy's intentions sincere, noting he planned to enter the California primary in June.

Although Neal predicted Johnson would be nominated at the Democratic convention next year, he hoped McCarthy would win enough support to convince the President his position on the war was wrong.

WAR DOMINATES

The conduct of the war dominated last night's program, although Coate said that poverty and race relations would be vital campaign issues, too. Neal, addressing the crowd first, devoted his entire presentation to Vietnam.

The professor predicted Hanoi would negotiate if the bombing were stopped and said that opposition to the war was the "highest kind of patriotism" because the conflict is not in the country's best interests. He also warned that, if the United States persists, China would enter the war and a "thermo-nuclear Armageddon" would result.

Neal said he knew of three occasions in which Washington ignored peace feelers from Hanoi. "The United States cannot police the world," Neal argued. "We cannot — even if we should — stop revolutions all over the world."

He said the Administration continues the war because "failure is unimaginable," knowing that this country's "power is so vast," and because "they have convinced themselves they are right... which produces a kind of political madness."

The war's only benefit — "if we're lucky to get the world out of it in one piece" — is that it may cause re-examination of America's foreign policy to prevent involvement of this size in the future, Neal said.

PEACE SLATE

Coate, avoiding a clash with Neal on Vietnam issues, pictured plans by the liberal California Democratic Council for a peace slate in the June primary as "healthy" for the party.

The Marin Democratic Assembly, a CDC affiliate, sponsored last night's talk. Coate placed Democrats in the political "minority" and said they are "well on the way to giving the entire United States to the right wing."

To Vietnam doves, he urged that they "not take a position of complete destruction of the party," but rather "suggest constructive alternatives."

VIET RETURNEE

Questioned via an audience card for his position on the war's conduct, Coate said this country was "Well past the half-way point in permitting the Republic of South Vietnam to become a viable entity."

He opposed the bombing of North Vietnam, but did not feel its halt would bring Ho Chi Minh to the bargaining table "until the last troop is out."

Coate recently returned from a trip to Vietnam, where he inspected government pacification efforts.

The audience applauded a call by Thomas T. Storer, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, for a unilateral cease fire to force negotiations. Storer, an ex-Marine Corps major, accused President Johnson of lying when he says he favors negotiations.

'CAN'T QUIT NOW'

Young Novatan Confident U.S. Winning Viet War

THERON A. NEWELL

"We can't quit now; we owe it to the 15,000 men who have died there to finish the war."

That was the opinion expressed by Army E-4 Kenneth D. Lampert, 20, of 6 Shon Drive, Novato, who has just returned from a year of hard fighting in South Vietnam.

U.S. IS WINNING

"If we quit now, we might just as well have lined them up on the highway and run over them because they would have died for nothing," he said of the men the U.S. has lost in the Vietnamese war.

Young Lampert thinks the U.S. is winning the war in Vietnam.

"There's a highway that runs the full length of the country. When I went there, you couldn't go three miles without being shot at. Now you can go all up and down it, but we still keep jeeps patrolling it," he said.

'SHOULD BE THERE'

It does not do much good to drive the enemy out of an area because they come back into it, he said.

"We clean the enemy out of an area and they come back in. We have to do the same thing over again in two or three months in the same area," said Lampert.

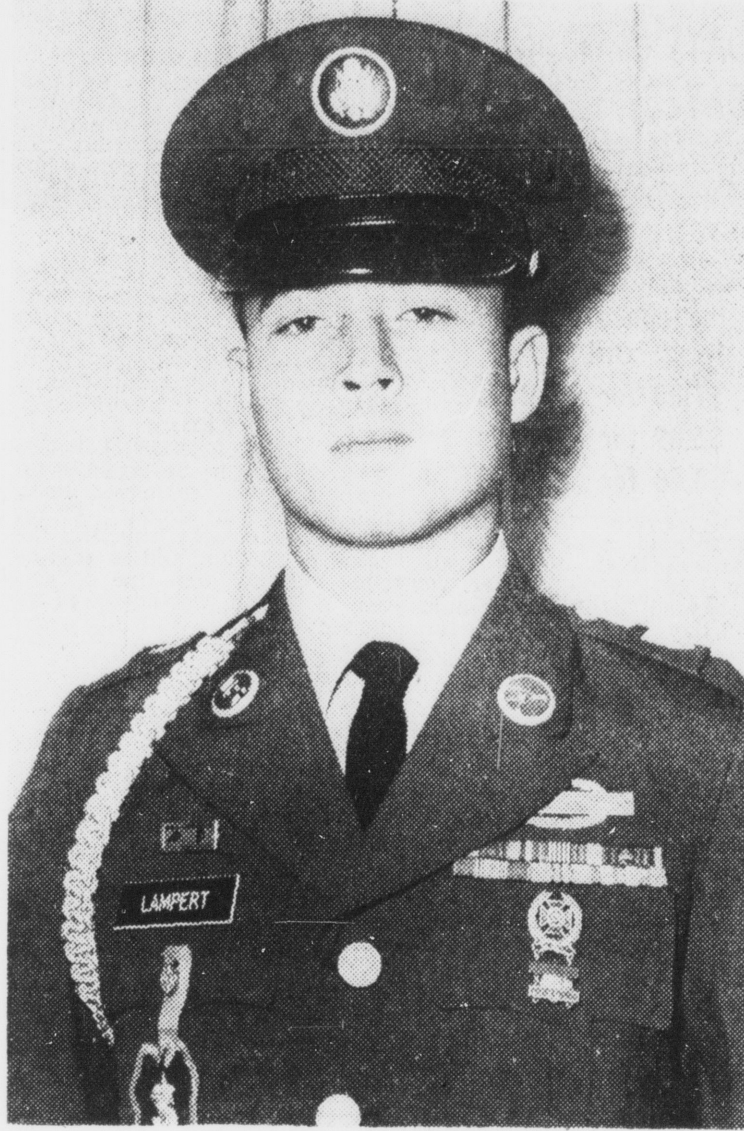

"We most definitely should be there. We should stop Communism someplace and I would rather do it 9,000 miles from home," he said.

"The people there never before had an opportunity to vote or to assemble together as they do in our military hangars," he observed.

PRAISES PEOPLE

"We will have to stay there a long time after the war ends because their army is not capable of holding off the North Vietnamese," he said.

"I want to see the people there live the way they want to live, and not be forced into

HOME FROM WAR — Kenneth D. Lampert has returned from a year in Vietnam with strong convictions about the war, in which, he said, he grew up in a hurry.

Communism," he said, giving his understanding of why the U.S. is there.

He had nothing but praise for the intelligence of the Vietnamese people.

"Given the same opportunities as we have, they would measure right up to us," he stated.

He was also amazed at how old their civilization is compared to ours.

From the very first day he landed in Vietnam, he saw action until he returned home last week, including the heavy fighting recently near the Cambodian border.

Although he was an athlete in San Rafael High School and the College of Marin, Lampert is short. This lack of stature made him a natural for the dangerous assignment of going into the tunnels to flush out Communists. He soon became an expert in jungle warfare.

Wounded twice, once in the hand and once in the head, he saw many of his buddies killed all around him.

"When you see that, you just get madder and madder," he said.

"You soon learn what friendship is. If you are being shot at, you find out what friendship is when they come out to rescue you," he explained.

NO COLOR LINE

One shares everything, including danger. There is no color barrier. You may be saved by a soldier of another race and in turn you may rescue one of another race, he said.

How did he react to the battles he was in?

"I was scared. Don't let anybody kid you, you go in scared and you come out scared," he said.

"I don't suppose that this war is any different than any other war. I guess it's something that every generation has to go through," he added.

'SOMEBODY ELSE'

When asked if he would go back, he paused, pondering his answer.

"Yes, I would if I was ordered to. I would probably go, grumbling against the bearded guys that are protesting the war while safe at home. We are keeping it safe so that they have the right to say what they want to. That's what America is all about. I didn't want to go and I have served my term at it. Let someone else go now. I am worried about the guys I left there."

How had the war experience affected him, beyond the bringing him the purple heart, the Air Medal and the Commendation Medal?

FAST MATURITY

"I grew up in a hurry. I didn't know what I was going to do. I didn't do well in school. I didn't realize what we had here in this country," he said.

Now, he plans to go to college when he gets out of the service next June, and later go into the insurance business with his father, Robert C. Lampert.

His next assignment is Fort Benning, Ga., but in the meantime, his leave at home will permit him to enjoy the holidays with his family and to celebrate his 21st birthday on Jan. 5.

Meeting Delayed

The Sausalito Citizens Council did not meet last night because two members were out of town. The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Roy Kindred at 546 Sausalito Boulevard.

Mother Questions Throat Treatments

The wife of a Novato sergeant cast some doubt yesterday on three $4 claims made by Dr. Henry Chaker, former Novato physician, for throat cultures on county welfare patients.

Mrs. Nancy Lee Weidauer of 61 Lambert Way, Novato, said she was right there in the room on Oct. 27, 1965, when the doctor claimed he performed the throat cultures on her three foster children.

NOT PERFORMED

Claiming some experience as a student nurse, she told the jury the throat cultures were not performed.

The little girls, aged 4, 5, and 6, had just moved in with her family, she said, and she asked the doctor to give them physical examinations.

Mrs. Weidauer, questioned by Deputy Dist. Atty. Ernest C. Zunino, said she was in the examination room while the doctor examined the girls and would have known if throat cultures were taken.

Crossing Relocation Report Due Planners

Cost estimates for the proposed relocation of the Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue intersection will be presented to the Mill Valley Planning Commission Monday by City Engineer Stanley M. Bala and Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon.

The commission will meet at 8 p.m. at the city council chambers. The proposed road shift would put the intersection east of a supermarket and service station at the corner.

Under cross examination by Chakar's attorney George Davis, the housewife acknowledged that three active little girls can be "quite a handful" but remained firm in her contention that she would have noticed the throat cultures.

Davis then held up a tongue depressor and asked her if it could be used to take a throat culture.

She answered that it could not. Davis then moved closer to the witness stand and revealed that a swab was hidden behind the depressor. Mrs. Weidauer then agreed that it could be used to take the cultures.

The trial, in which Chaker is charged with grand theft for allegedly over-charging county welfare patients, entered its eighth day today.

Handicraft Sale To Aid Hospital

A handicraft benefit sale, known as the Santa Stocking Stuffer Sale, will be held tomorrow and Sunday at Central School, Sausalito under the sponsorship of the Sausalito Artists and Merchants Association.

Mrs. Paul Satur of the association said children through the eighth grade contribute one or more articles, with proceeds of their sale donated to the Children's Hospital in Mazatlan, Mexico.

The sale will be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days. John Moe of Sausalito, acting as Santa Claus, will appear between 1 and 3 p.m. on Saturday. This is the association's second annual benefit sale.

Admiral Says Bad War Is Necessary

By ELLEN BRY

"There is no one in this room who would like to see peace more than I," said Navy Rear Adm. John H. Hoefler of Belvedere last night in defending a continued United States "war of restraint" in Vietnam.

"The war is basic to our national policy and our national policy is to contain communism," Hoefler said. "We must keep our strategic life lines open, he said, mentioning Taiwan and the Philippines."

'DIABOLIC PLOT'

The reserve Naval officer, who conceded to being no "expert" on Vietnam, saying he had recently spent slightly more than three weeks there, including some time at sea, spoke in a quietly understated voice to 40 persons at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church parish hall.

Hoefler spoke of the "diabolic plot" represented by North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh who, Hoefler said, had spent some 35 years outside Vietnam in France and Russia, gaining "intensive training in communist doctrine — and the doctrine, among other things, espouses the control of the world and destruction of capitalism."

The "lie of nationalism of the North Vietnamese is actually aimed at extending communism," Hoefler said.

ACTUAL ENEMIES

He described the war as one not against the Vietnamese but against the Chinese and Russians who supply North Vietnam with modern weapons. Hoefler said U.S. policy is "war of restraint" to avoid escalating the fighting so that China or Russia would be drawn directly into it.

Hoefler said that great good is being done through U.S. aid programs which, though there is great corruption in them, are helping Vietnamese.

He mentioned construction of schools and churches, medical treatment teaching and person-to-person help from U.S. servicemen as instances of help which would endure. He gently prodded the press for not giving enough coverage to this non-war work, especially an irrigation project he described in the Mekong Delta which will raise rice production.

NATION'S WOES

Hoefler told of a country with a high death rate, 80 per cent illiteracy, an average per-person income of $150 to $200 a year, centuries-long history of being governed by outsiders. He said it is unlikely that Vietnam was ready for democratic self government, nor would the population stand a benevolent dictator.

"Eventually self determination will allow us to get out of there," he said.

"I think we got kinda sucked into this thing against a lot of people's will," the admiral said. "I think everybody in our government would like to get out but they're not going to do it if it would jeopardize future generations." At one point he compared the war in Vietnam to the U.S. Civil War.

RAPS PROTESTS

Hoefler said he was "disgusted" by sit-in demonstrations against the war. "I think our troops deserve better..." At the end of about an hour's talk of the war and the role of the Navy in it, Mrs. Joseph M. Marshall of Tiburon asked, in the restrained manner that typified the evening, how Hoefler could justify killing women and children, the use of napalm and defoliants and anti-personal mines, adding that she, too, was against communism.

"I agree — it's terrible, it's horrible, nobody likes it," Hoefler said. "It's escalated beyond our control."

Mrs. Marshall said she believed it to be morally wrong for the United States to be in the war as she could see no "clear and present danger" to the U.S.

"It's rotting my soul more than is justified in the name of fighting communism," she said.

COST DEFENDED

"This is part of the international communist conspiracy," Hoefler replied. He later defended the cost of the war versus spending funds on social problems within the U.S. as defending the country from the "communist yoke."

The war was defended by James S. Baker of Belvedere, who quietly talked of "termites boring from within" in apparent reference to communists in the U.S. and opposed "crying about napalm and a few people getting killed" in Vietnam.

Joske Presents Park-Dump Idea To Homes Group

The Marin Estates Homeowners Association board last night heard Pierre W. Joske, county director of recreation and parks, describe a proposed 250-acre recreation park in east Corte Madera.

Alfred H. Noble Jr., treasurer, said no action was taken by the association and further consideration will be given at the annual membership meeting in March. The board expressed strong feeling that specifications insure a minimum of odor from the refuse fill plan for the park, he said.

Noble added that Joske assured the board there will be little offensive odor, and refuse will be quickly covered with dirt.

Two Due Degrees

John E. Lighty of San Rafael will receive a master of science degree in interdisciplinary studies and Gregory A. McGrew of San Rafael will receive a bachelor of science degree in journalism at a graduation ceremony tomorrow at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

First Major Flu Siege Fells 3,000

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The first outbreaks of influenza for the 1967-68 epidemiologic year were reported today by the National Communicable Disease Center.

The first reported outbreak affected approximately 3,000 of 18,500 students at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Mich., between Oct. 23 and Nov. 10, the federal health agency reported. The peak incidence was reached during the week of Oct. 28.

The second outbreak occurred in the North Miami, Fla., public schools early in November. The peak in incidence was on Nov. 8-9, the center reported.

At Western Michigan University, approximately 1,000 students sought medical care at the University Health Service and about 2,000 others were ill but did not seek medical assistance, the report said.

During the university outbreak, absenteeism also increased in Kalamazoo's public schools.

Employment At Peak During Last Month

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Employment in California was at a record high in November, the state reported today.

There were 7,487,000 at work on civilian jobs, 215,000 more than November 1966, Albert C. Beeson, director of industrial relations, reported. That was higher than any previous November. Beeson said the usual October and November drop in employment was only 72,000, smaller than in the past, Beeson said.

The unemployment rate fell to its lowest level in more than eight years—4.6 per cent. Employment Director Peter Weinberger said that compared to 4.9 per cent for November 1966 and was the lowest since the 4.5 per cent rate of September 1959. Unemployment totaled 351,000, up from the October figure of 312,000 because of seasonal agricultural layoffs. It was down 8,000 from the previous November.

State officials credited the settlement of labor dispute and big gains in aerospace manufacturing industries. They said that increases in public employment and medical and business services also helped.

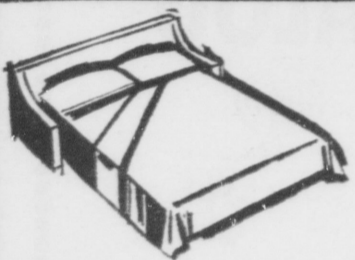

The only decline was in the construction industry, where employment dropped 11,000. But officials said this was less than previous declines.

Body In Park: A Bride-To-Be?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police say they are almost certain that the body of a woman found by a gardener in a Golden Gate Park gully yesterday is that of a bride-to-be missing since Nov. 16.

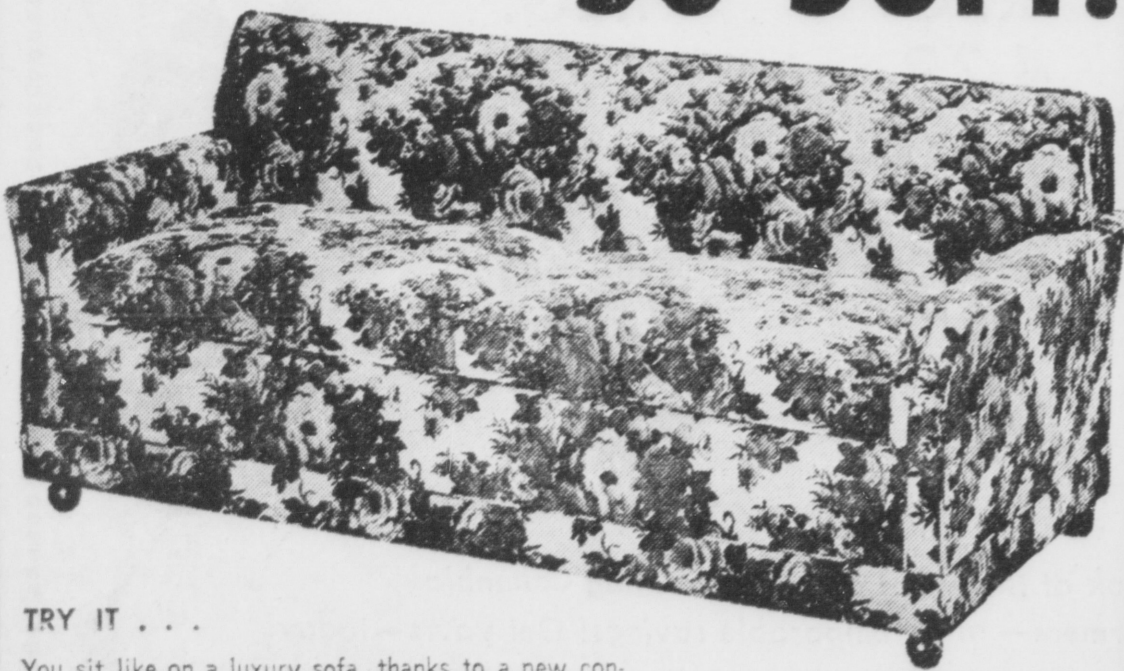

Chief of Inspectors Martin Lee said "It's got to be her," meaning Gloria Zamora, 40, who was to have been married this week to Robert O. Hane, 40, of San Francisco.

Hane identified a diamond-studded locket as belonging to his fiancée, as well as her white shoes and her coat. All were found by the body, hidden in blackberry bushes.

Dream Backfield For AP All-American Grid Team

NEW YORK (AP) — A dream backfield came true? The glass slipper appears to be a perfect fit for the quartet of Gary Beban, O. J. Simpson, Leroy Keyes and Larry Csonka, landslide choices on the 1967 All-America college football team announced yesterday by Associated Press.

Not since 1946, when Army's touchdown twins, Felix "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis, Notre Dame's Johnny Lujack and Georgia's Charley Trippi received virtually unqualified acclaim, have four college backs so completely overshadowed the pack.

Beban, the Heisman Trophy winning UCLA quarterback; Csonka, Syracuse's brute force fullback, and super halfbacks Simpson, of Southern California, and Keyes, of Purdue, simply did it all—and then some—this fall.

Beban passed and ran for 1,586 yards and 19 touchdowns. Simpson, the nation's runaway rushing king, ground out 1,415 yards and Csonka rambled for 1,127 while rewriting the Syracuse record book. Versatile Keyes ran for 986 yards, caught 45 passes for 758 yards and led the NCAA scoring parade with 114 points.

Together, the foursome accounted for 65 touchdowns and just under three miles in total offense yardage while leading their teams to an aggregate season record of 32-7-1.

After watching Simpson for the first time, one pro scout exclaimed: "We'd take him right now. I'm glad I don't have to coach against him. He'd scare me to death."

That undoubtedly would apply to Beban, Csonka and Keyes as well. But the pros will have to settle for Beban and Csonka this time around. Simpson and Keyes are among five juniors on the 23-man All-America squad.

Two other standouts on Southern Cal's national championship club—offensive tackle Ron Yary and linebacker Adrian Young—landed first team berths. Notre Dame, only other school with more than one representative, placed 270-pound Kevin Hardy and tough little Tom Schoen on the defensive unit.

Drake's Cagers Win In Tourney

By KIMO CAMPBELL

After last night's second-round games in the third annual Drake Invitational Basketball Tournament, visiting teams may contend that the home team has wired the baskets.

Drake's quick Pirates hit a blistering 47 per cent from the field while rolling over Napa, 66-47. In the other second-round pairing, Petaluma's Trojans used their speed of hand and foot to rout Terra Linda, 80-59.

TOP SCORERS

Art Pla, who fired 9 successful ICBMs for Coach Carl Brown's Drake five, was top scorer with 19 markers, but the whole squad was hitting from all over the court.

Petaluma didn't bomb in with such impressive accuracy from outside, mostly because it had so many easy layups off its fast break and on turnover caused by its tight, pressing defense, which can rattle any team that has ball-control problems. As a matter of fact, if a team doesn't have control problems before the game, they probably will afterwards. The top man for the Petalumas was 6-2 forward Bob Hatfield, who had 25 points, high for the tournament so far. Ray Volker, another front-line man, supported Hatfield with 17 points. John Thibodeaux and Pat Purcell led Terra Linda with 23 and 15 points, respectively.

TEAMED WELL

Football stars Don Alvarado and Don Stone teamed well with Pla in Drake's triumph, both scoring well inside and doing a creditable job off the backboards. Alvarado had 13 points and a game high of 12 rebounds, Stone a dozen points. Bill Buckner's 14 led Napa.

Tonight's championship pairings match up similar teams, which sets up an interesting contrast for tomorrow's finals no matter which pair goes on. Novato's Hornets and the Lowell High Indians, Wednesday winners, are both teams with good

FOOTBALL FAMILY RIVALRY

The 1968 Ross Valley Kiwanis All-Star Football game will be something of a family rivalry.

Terra Linda head grid coach Don Lucas will guide the North All-Stars and Carl Brown, assistant grid coach at Drake, will be head coach of the South All-Stars, in this renewal of a game that pits the top Marin prep stars of 1967 at College of Marin, Aug. 22.

Lucas is Brown's son-in-law.

all-round height. Lowell's big man, both literally and figuratively, is 6-5 Larry Clark, who led all scorers and rebounders in the Indians' 43-40 win over Redwood Wednesday night. Novato boasts 6-2 Ed Her-nberger and 6-4 Bob Tait up front. Each team has a classy guard to run the show—Lowell's Steve Granelli's Novato's Bob Anderson.

FAST GAME

In tonight's feature game at 8:30, a tight, fast, game is in prospect. The host Pirates, with a tenacious defense and good speed, will be faced with Petaluma's rattling press and breakneck offense.

Whether Drake can shoot nearly as well against Petaluma — and whether the Trojans can work their break against the Buc's defense is the question. Drake, with better ball-handling and shooting than Terra Linda, should be able to get some free baskets from scrambles out of the press.

Petaluma has to get more turnovers from the press than Drake gets easy baskets. That's

Tom Rooney, Man Behind S.F. Boat Show Success

Tom Rooney is as Irish as his name. Indeed, some of Rooney's friends are convinced there are a few leprechauns among his ancestors.

Irish folklore pictures a leprechaun as a tricky old man who may reveal the hiding place of treasure if caught. He also is pictured as a jovial little fellow with an appreciative eye for a well turned ankle.

And, of course, everyone knows that all leprechauns love animals almost as much as their clay pipes.

From time to time Rooney puffs on a clay pipe. His love of animals is well known. He once took a kangaroo on a nationwide tour. And for a couple of generations he has been watching the girls go by.

As for revealing the hiding place of treasure, Rooney pointed the way for sports and boat people more than a quarter of a century ago when he taught them the technique of putting their products in an attractive showcase.

Getting Ready For 26th Show

Now Rooney is getting ready his 26th annual San Francisco National Sports and Boat Show that opens at the Cow Palace Jan. 12 and will run through Jan. 21. He is particularly proud of this production because its in a new prestige spot, No. 1. Heretofore, the New York show used to be held in January and the San Francisco show in February.

"So manufacturers will be introducing their 1968 lines at our show," said Rooney who provides them with exhibit areas at $2 per square foot for booth space, $1.50 per square foot for bulk space restricted to boats, boat trailers and engines.

Through the years Rooney has been a persuasive salesman because now all the big names in the boat world are participants in his show.

An Rooney has proved himself to be one of the top showmen in the country. He provides the costumers with first class sports entertainment.

A feature of his original show was a Huck Finn casting pool for youngsters. Rooney never will discard the casting pool. "Why," he said, "among today's fishermen are yesterday's youngsters who wet their first line in our pool."

Bringing Fly-Casting Champ

This year Rooney is bringing Peter Anderson, Scotland's fly-casting champion, from Kirkintilloch to the Cow Palace to demonstrate his skills in a 100-foot long landscaped casting pool.

A revolutionary water ski training device that makes it possible to practice and actually learn water skiing indoors without a boat is another feature of Rooney's 1968 show.

Soccer Leagues Merge

NEW YORK (AP) — The feud between the two rival professional soccer leagues has come to an end with the long-awaited merger of the leagues and the next order of business is to determine which cities will field how many teams next season.

The merger between the National Professional Soccer League and the United Soccer Association was announced yesterday. The merged league will operate a United and National Division in 1968 with an interlocking schedule.

PROBLEMS

Still to be worked out at a meeting in Chicago next Wednesday is what will happen to the cities that had teams in both leagues. Already San Francisco of the USA has been merged with Vancouver of the NPSL.

Boston, New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Toronto are the other two-team cities. Dick Walsh, commissioner of the USA, will remain as head of that division while Ken Macker of the NPSL will head his division.

The USA had been recognized by the American and international governing bodies of the sport, while the NPSL had been outlawed by these groups.

TV CONTRACT

The NPSL had a television contract with CBS last year, which now presumably will extend to the merged league. Attendance last year, the first year of operation for both leagues, was not good.

Cities represented in the NPSL last season were Chicago, Pittsburgh, Oakland, Atlanta, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, St. Louis, Toronto and Los Angeles.

USA teams were in Washington, Cleveland, Toronto, Detroit, New York, Boston, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Houston, Vancouver and Dallas.

Golf's Bo Winger Dies From Stroke

BO WININGER
Death at 45

Won Six Times On Pro Circuit Tourney Trail

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Francis "Bo" Winger, the gray-haired golfer who won more friends than tournaments, died yesterday in an Oklahoma City hospital.

Winger had been under intensive care since he suffered a stroke a week earlier. Doctors said he developed acute complication of the stroke early yesterday, and he died shortly afterward. He was 45.

Even before the complications began, doctors disclosed this week his right side would have been paralyzed from the stroke.

SIX TRIUMPHS

Winger played in only a half-dozen tournaments during the past year and won only $150. During his career, he won only six tournaments but received $155,000 in prize money. He resigned recently as golf director at a Las Vegas, Nev., country club.

Winger scored well with more than a golf club, however. He was a member of the PGA Tournament Committee in 1957 and 1958 and served as its chairman in 1959. The next three years he worked with an oil firm as a public relations representative.

AVID HUNTER

An avid big game hunter, he earned the nickname "Bwana." Winger was one of the few American hunters ever to bag a giant African forest hog. He shot it on one of his many safaris to Africa. He also killed an elephant, rhinoceros, and a cape buffalo.

Winger was born in Chico, and moved to Guthrie, Okla., as a child. At Oklahoma State University he won the Missouri Valley Conference Championship four straight years. He also won the Oklahoma Amateur Championship and later the South Central Section PGA Tournament.

Survivors include his widow, Nita, and two daughters, Lisa Lee, 14, and Holly Joyce, 12. Funeral services will be at Guthrie.

Warriors Are Hoping For Revenge

OAKLAND (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors seek revenge tonight against the San Diego Rockets for the 127-103 upset on San Diego's home court which stopped an eight-game Warrior winning streak.

Tonight's game in the Oakland Arena starts at 8:30.

The Rockets handled the Chicago Bulls 118-108 in a National Basketball Association contest in Chicago last night. John Green led the San Diego scoring with 23 points.

The Rockets had trailed by as much as 13 points before they staged a winning fourth quarter rally. Bob Boozer paced the Bulls with 23 points.

The Warriors, with a 20-8 record, trail the St. Louis Hawks, NBA Western Division leaders, by half a game.

The Hawks meet Cincinnati in St. Louis tonight and the Warriors could take over the lead with a win over San Diego plus a Royals victory over St. Louis.

The Warriors play the Chicago Bulls in the Cow Palace tomorrow night.

Buzzie: What Have You Done To The Dodgers?

Baseball general managers are, generally, a canny lot of flesh peddlers who would give you a spavined gelding for a herd of milk cows any time.

They insulate themselves against failure by: (a) never trading anybody under the age of 40; or (b) over the average of .210. A "big" trade is usually just an exchange of disappointments. A trade that "will help both clubs" is most always one which will help neither.

By and large, they follow a well-traveled axiom — "when in doubt, get a pitcher."

THIS HAS NOT always worked. Baltimore got Frank Robinson for a pitcher. They also got a pennant for one, therefore. The Cardinals got Orlando Cepeda for a pitcher. The Cards also got Lou Brock for a pitcher.

There are exceptions. Frank Kane was a compulsive trader who, seemingly, paid very little attention to standard procedure. He scattered a pretty good Card team to the four winds not so many years ago and he put the torch to a Cleveland team that at least wasn't embarrassing itself. He put more people on buses than Greyhound and he was listed by some moving van and storage firms as a capital asset.

EMIL J. (BUZZIE) Bavasi has always been among the canniest of the canny. He doled players out with all the abandon of a banker making loans to a guy with holes in his shoes.

But, Buzzie was a disciple of the late Branch Rickey, a manipulator who grew up in an era when there were more baseball players than teams for them to play on. Rickey made a fortune trading players just as they reached the apex of their careers. He was always willing to unload a superstar the minute he saw him squinting at the fine print in his contract or taking his shoes off between innings because his feet were killing him.

ON MOST OF Branch's trades, he should have thrown in the rocking chair. Sentiment was spelled with a dollar sign. He had a deep faith in God and the Federal Reserve System. He even tried to peddle Stan Musial in the twilight of his career, which would have been an unthinkable indignity to anyone but Branch Rickey's accountant — and Branch Rickey.

Buzzie Bavasi has been applying Branch Rickey principles to a game of baseball which has expanded by 40 per cent at the major league level since Rickey left it and has contracted almost 100 per cent at the minor-league level.

A SITUATION EXISTS today in which the paucity of players is such that a player who might have been long gone 10 years ago finds the competition so tepid he can cajole another 5 years out of his arm, glove, bat. Today's crop of players have had marginal minor-league training, if any. Trading age for youth is not the surefire method it was when horses pulled trolley cars.

In the past 12 months, Buzzie has traded four players whose combined age was 132. But, in return, he got (a) a player who broke the listed league record for consecutive innings played on the rubbing table; (b) a player who can help Spokane; (c) a player who can't help Spokane; (d) a player whom Spokane can't help; (e) a player whom God can't help; (f) a player whose name is either James Williams or William James; and (g) a fervent note from Leo Durocher saying "God bless you, Buzzie."

GONE ARE THE greatest base-stealer and one of the most exciting players of your time, a catcher who was 200 pounds of integrity and a master at a position that, at the last census, had only 4 persons in a nation of 200 million who could play it, an outfielder who had won two batting championships and outlived Willie Mays by 40 points last year and, lastly, but mostly, Lou Johnson, a player who can hit as well as Lou Brock and run as well as Billy Williams.

They say it takes three years to evaluate a baseball trade. But, if this one balances out, all I can say is, Russia made a great move getting rid of Alaska and Napoleon sure slickered the American in the Louisiana Purchase. From where we sit, Buzzie has dipped into his shoe to buy the Brooklyn Bridge from a guy who keeps looking over his shoulder for fear the cops are coming.

Two Small College Goliaths To Clash In Camelia Bowl

SACRAMENTO (AP) — San Diego State and San Francisco State—two goliaths of the small college football world — put finishing touches on their attacks today for tomorrow's Camelia Bowl battle.

San Francisco State brings a rewritten record book and a passing attack named holy Toledo into the game. Quarterback Bob Toledo passed for 3,409 yards and 45 touchdowns this year as the Gators wrote a 9-1 record.

NO. 1 TEAM

Coach Don Coryell's San Diego State Aztecs carry with them the No. 1 rating among small college teams this season and probably the biggest backing of fans of any "minor team"—an average home attendance of about 40,000.

San Diego State has an enrollment of more than 17,000 and San Francisco State about 18,500.

Both Coryell and Gator Coach Vie Rowen concentrated on filling last minute holes in their lineups created by NCAA rules covering junior college transfer. Coryell's main problem is plugging up his defensive backfield which lost two men to ineligibility.

BIG RUSH

One way to control Toledo is to get to him before he passes, Coryell said.

"We'll plan on the blitz and we'll plan on coverage and go from there. It's the same way we work offensively. We prepare to run or pass."

San Diego lost seven players to the NCAA rule and San Francisco State two key men. The Aztecs also were missing seven players in last year's Camelia bowl, but defeated Montana State, 28-7.

RECEIVERS

Coryell's defense will have to contend with a pack of Gator receivers, including Joe Koonitz, who gained 1,287 yards on passes caught and scored 18 times.

The Aztecs' top receiver, Little All-America Haven Moses, gained 953 yards and scored seven touchdowns.

San Diego's only loss was 31-25 in the last 48 seconds to major college Utah State in the final game of the regular season.

Lou Brock Named World Series 'Hero'

CHICAGO (AP) — Outfielder Lou Brock of the St. Louis Cardinals was voted yesterday the 1967 World Series Hero Award by the Chicago chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Brock, who batted .414 in the Series, stole seven bases, scored eight runs and drove in three, will be presented the award at the chapter's Diamond Dinner Jan. 14.

Tars To Host Rugged Hamilton Quint

If, as Lincoln said, a man is better tomorrow for what he learns today, College of Marin Tars should be much wiser basketball players tomorrow morning, even if they don't get their first win of the year in the process.

They figure to get a few lessons from the tall and talented Hamilton Field Defenders in Kentfield at 8 o'clock tonight. The Air Force five hasn't lost to J.C. team in two seasons and has run off an 11-1 record already this year. The only loss was a 70-80 defeat at the hands of the Chico State varsity. Hamilton's latest win was a 72-55 romp over perennial powerhouse City College of San Francisco Wednesday night.

The Hamilton Defenders are quick and strong, with two 5-10 guards, Vance Devost and Robert Yates, running the attack, which gets a lot of its scoring punch from 6-6 Frank Tarantini in the pivot.

After hosting the formidable flyers tonight, Marin treks to San Pablo tomorrow night for a game with the Contra Costa Comets, who downed Marin 70-57 last fall and have run off three high-scoring wins this season, the most impressive a 118-91 drubbing of Solano. The Comets' top scorer is 6-3 forward Harry Brown. The team is no larger than the Tars, a nice change, but has speed and jumping ability.

Tar mentor Cal Riemcke will go with a starting lineup of three veterans and two freshmen tonight. Sophomore forward

Tom Stetson, who leads the Tars in scoring with a 14.0 average, will be paired with 6-4 Tom Hernberger. Keith Kornelis will be at center, with Russ Smith, number two Tam scorer with a 12.0 average, will team with 5-10 frosh Andre Horn at guard.

Columbia U. On Lookout For New Football Coach

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University, whose once-proud football fortunes have sunk to the lower depths of the Ivy League in recent years, is in the market for a new head coach.

After 11 years at the helm, Aldo T. (Buff) Donelli resigned yesterday only a few weeks after the Lions completed a wretched 2-7 season during which they couldn't win a single league game.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Keep Your 1967 Fishing License; You'll Be Buying Stamps For '68

If you still have your 1967 fishing license, hang onto it. Next year that license will be renewable. You will be able to purchase a new license stamp for ocean fishing, as well as a stamp for fishing inland waters and a stamp for trout fishing. All you will do when purchasing 1968 license and stamps is to show your 1967 license to any issuing agent and buy the stamps and affix them on the old license.

For the benefit of those who are not clear on the license and stamp affair — the basic angling license, which costs $3, entitles the holder to fish in ocean waters; if you go after fish in inland waters such as black bass, crappies, bluegills and the like, you buy a second stamp at $1, and if you try for trout you buy a third stamp which costs $1. So, if you take in all types of fishing you will pay $5.

THE DEPARTMENT of Fish and Game was to meet today to adopt angling regulations for 1968. Quite a few changes will be made if commission resolutions are adopted, and they usually are. One of the highlights of the proposed changes will be a longer general trout season which will extend through the general deer season. It would open in most areas on April 27 and run through Nov. 15 instead of terminating on Oct. 31 as has been the case. The season in Northwest California would open on May 25 and run through Nov. 15.

It seems that quite a few instances of salmon snagging took place this year, so a measure to curb illegal snagging of salmon will be to ban the use of multiple hooks of size 2 or larger on all inland waters. This will make the use of smaller gang hooks mandatory.

THE DFG WILL ALSO consider a plan to allow summer trout fishing on the upper portions and tributaries of a number of north coast salmon and steelhead streams now only open during the winter. Included in these coastal streams are the Albion, Big, Garcia, Gualala, Navarro, Noya, Ten Mile, as well as Alder, Brush, Elk, Greenwood and Pudding creeks. Remember the above changes in the current 1967 regulations are proposed only. Chances are 10-1 they will be approved, but they will not become official until the Commission so designates.

ONE LAST CAUTION. Don't put off until late January or February your purchase of a 1968 fishing license. Game wardens will be on the prowl to catch some well-intentioned, but forgetful fishermen with no 1968 license on their persons. Each year, during January and February, literally hundreds of anglers will be cited for lack of a current license. Don't you be one of those unfortunates. New license and stamps will be available in most bait shops or sporting goods stores. Play safe and get your stamps and affix them on your 1967 license.

Redwood Basketballers Win Trio Of Games

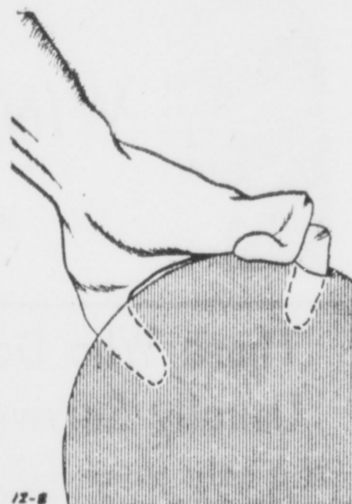

While the varsity was idle in the Drake Tournament, Redwood's other basketball teams were busy.

The Redwood "B" team downed the Drake Bees, 49-23 behind 12-point performances from John Boro and Art Carewe.

The Redwood Jayvees stopped the Terra Linda jayvees as Eric Pedlar scored 16 points, and the Redwood frosh nipped the Terra Linda frosh, 38-34.

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER

Because I do not want my little finger to inadvertently twist the ball during delivery, I take it out of action by curling it under, as shown. If you prefer to straighten this finger, keep it close to the others — don't spread it out.

Hot-Shooting Pittsburgh Dumps Oaks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pipers, hitting 53 percent from the field, pulled away from the Oakland Oaks early and coasted to a 114-103 American Basketball Association victory last night.

The Pipers took a 29-15 first quarter lead behind Connie Hawkins, who took game scoring honors with 28 points. The Oaks were never close after that.

Levern Tart made his first start for Oakland in a week. He was benched by an injunction filed by the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Barons of the Eastern Basketball League. A Pennsylvania Supreme Court justice ruled Wednesday that Tart could play until the court heard an appeal next month.

TARS FOOTBALL

New Plans Begin For 'Next Year'

This is the time of year when football recedes a bit, with only the televised bowl games to play and the public sated for another year. The pads are packed away, the jerseys cleaned and stored, and the coaches, fans and players begin plotting for "next year."

At College of Marin, this winter will be a satisfying one, since the Tars can rehearse their greatest season in history, but it won't be a quiet one. The age-old mating call of the recruiter can be heard on the winds that blow across the Kentfield campus.

OFFERS

The stars of Marin's 1967 Golden Valley Conference champions (state champions at football, runners-up at coin-tossing) are being besieged by admiring coaches and boosters of some of the West Coast's top teams. Halfback Tim Harr, top GVC rusher and the only unanimous pick on the GVC All-Star squad, has, by his own count, received offers from Gonzaga, California, UOP, Oklahoma State, Nevada, Oregon Tech, Montana, Cal Hayward, San Francisco State, Arizona State, and New Mexico State. That's all. So far, the Chicago Bears may be next. Today Marin, tomorrow the world. That's Tim Harr.

Twice All-GVC end Honor Jackson, probably the best receiver in the school's history, is considering UOP, S.F. State, Utah State, Humboldt State and Oregon Tech.

BACK TO DAVIS

Quarterback Bill Ingram, holder of a raft of COM passing records, may go back to Cal Davis, where he played freshman ball. He has also heard from Nevada and Oregon Tech.

Linebackers Jim Crisp and Bill Hickerson are both being sought by Oklahoma State, while Halfback Dean Lazzarine may return to UCLA or go to Miami of Florida.

With all this eagerly-awaited talent departing, Marin coach Dick Read might be excused for dragging out the old crying towel — but it's hard to weep after a season like this one, coin flip or not. (For late comers, Marin tied Hartnell 29-29 in semi-final state playoffs, but lost a coin-flip to decide the winner after long arguments over statistics, which were supposed to determine a winner.)

FINE VETS

Read will have some fine veterans to work with next fall, plus whatever talent is drawn to Marin from local high schools (and that ought to be a bumper crop after THIS season).

Heading the list of those with junior college eligibility remaining are a pair of 1967 GVC All-Stars, corner back Karl Stein and guard Bob Barnecut.

Others are backs Val Subuco, Mark Wallace, Curt Anderson, Mike Mazzoni, Marty Katz, Tom Loback and sometime quarterback Rob Prosch.

Prosch also played defensive end and could be added to a list that already includes Tom Heacox, Terry Pascoe, Rich Woodall, George Weigand, Bill McClelland, Steve Shaefer, Rich Cohen (although he and Bill Hickerson may not return) Gary Dinkel, Len Pieri, Jerry Feikert, Chris Anderson, Trevor Benedict, Russ Poole, and Ken Gianini.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Those Who Don't Complain Usually Survive Bad Breaks

Most bridge players may be classified either as wailers, who complain about bad breaks, or as men of character, who go down uncomplainingly. Only a few players are unclassified: they don't complain because they find a way to survive the bad breaks.

TEAM MATCH

When today's hand was played in a recent team match, the contract was six spades at both tables. The first declarer took the king of hearts, drew four rounds of trumps, discarding a heart from dummy, cashed the top clubs and ruffed a club.

South was down when the clubs failed to break. He led a heart to dummy's ace and gave up a club, hoping that East was out of hearts. But East returned a heart, and West took two tricks.

"A miserable hand," South complained. (As you see, he was a wailer.) "The trumps broke 4-1 and the clubs were sour, too."

NO COMPLAINT

The other declarer did no complaining because he found a way to make the slam. Like the first declarer he began with the king of hearts, four rounds of trumps and the top clubs. Then he led a low club from dummy and discarded instead of ruffing East's ten of clubs.

This fine play brought the slam in. East could knock out only one of dummy's red aces. South then ruffed a club and got back to dummy with the other red ace to take the rest of the tricks.

Migration Of The Butterfly

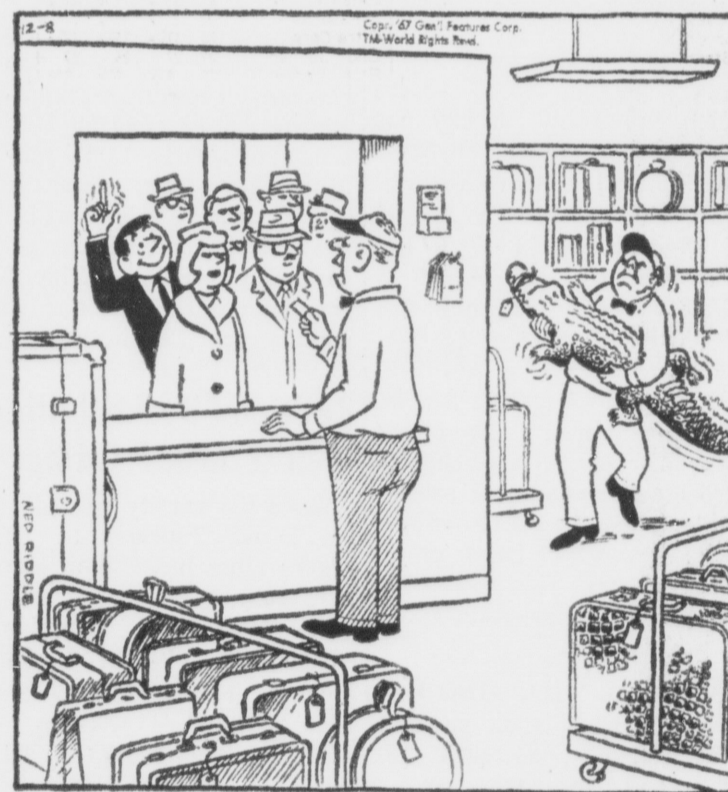

AMES, Iowa (UPI)—Colorful monarch butterflies migrate to the south each year from their summer homes in the northern United States and Canada.

The butterflies migrate south in September and October, leaving the northland in groups for the Gulf of Mexico and the eastern coast of Texas, entomologists at Iowa State University report. They begin their return trip late in February and arrive back in Iowa in the middle of May.

Three generations of adult butterflies are produced each summer, and it is the third generation that return south in the fall.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Dec. 8, the 342nd day of 1967 with 23 to follow.

The moon is in its first quarter. The morning stars are ning stars are Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:
In 1776, George Washington crossed the Delaware River, near Trenton, N.J., and landed on Pennsylvania soil.

In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln announced his plan for reconstruction of the South, a plan providing for amnesty of all who supported the Confederacy except the highest leaders.

In 1949, the Chinese Nationalist government, defeated by the Communists, moved its headquarters from the mainland to Formosa.

A thought for the day—President Lincoln said: "Truth is generally the best vindication against slander."

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Marin's Luck Holds In New Congressman

Eight out of 10 Marinites, through no choice of their own, have acquired a new congressman.

Actually, William S. Mailliard's Sixth District will not include most of Marin until next November's election, but for practical purposes he must — and does — consider himself our representative now. For when he runs for re-election, we will be among his constituents controlling his political fate.

The reapportionment by the state Legislature which left only North and West Marin in Rep. Donald H. Clausen's First District and gave the rest to Mailliard was no more sought by the San Francisco congressman than by the voters. However, he has indicated he is not entirely displeased with it. And to prove he means to keep abreast of things in the newly attached part of his district, his office immediately subscribed to the Independent-Journal.

ALTHOUGH WE DID NOT choose Mailliard, and he did not choose us, we have not done badly in this shuffle.

In fact, we got a native Marinite as congressman.

Mailliard's family came to California a century ago and settled in Marin. William Mailliard was born in Belvedere. Although the family moved to San Francisco while he was a baby, he returned here to attend Tamalpais School for Boys in San Rafael.

The Mailliards have long been active in Republican politics and in civic affairs in San Francisco. The family is considered a civic-minded family.

WILLIAM S. MAILLIARD lost his first race for Congress, in 1948, but won on his second try, in 1952, and has been re-elected regularly since.

With considerable seniority over Clausen, he naturally holds more important committee memberships. He is the ranking Republican on the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries.

Particularly interested in foreign affairs, he is a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and of its Far East and Pacific, State Department Organization, and Foreign Operations subcommittees, as well as a special subcommittee for review of mutual security programs. He has been adviser to the U.S. delegation to the Organization of American States since 1964, and was a delegate to the United Nations General Assembly in 1963 and to the Council of Europe in 1965-66.

He is a Yale University graduate. He served seven years in the Navy, including World War II, and is a reserve rear admiral (the only admiral in Congress). During his Navy service, he was naval attache to the U.S. Embassy in London in 1939-40.

ALL THIS WOULD seem to indicate pretty plainly that in acquiring Mailliard as congressman, we have acquired not just a party hack and log-roller, but an accomplished, respected representative.

How well he can and will represent Marin remains to be seen, but we will have opportunity to judge before election time.

Meanwhile, we are not forgetting that Don Clausen remains official representative of all of Marin until next November — and will continue to represent the Fifth Supervisorial District and parts of the Fourth thereafter if he wins re-election.

To Bill Mailliard we say: "Welcome home to Marin. The state Supreme Court and the Legislature left you on our doorstep. But we're happy to have you — at least for awhile."

Pennsylvania has just raised its cigarette tax from eight cents to 13 cents a pack—highest in the nation, and eclipsing California's dime-a-pack. But here as in Pennsy., it has long been true that your money just goes up in a puff of smoke.

Canada Geese In Marin

The autumn migration of the Canada Geese from the lakes of Northern Canada to the Southern United States is pretty well finished by now. Flocks flew over Marin on their way in October and November.

Inevitably, some birds become injured or exhausted along the way and drop out. A pair of these stragglers has apparently settled down on the San Rafael Canal. They will probably be there all winter, picking up the same flock as the geese fly north in the spring.

The Canada Goose is well known and can easily be identified by its long black neck and white cheek patches.

If Medi-Cal Not In Trouble, California Taxpayer Certainly Is

By HENRY J. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — When Gov. Ronald Reagan said that "Medi-Cal is in trouble," he told only a small part of the story, for the simple reason it isn't Medi-Cal which is in trouble, but the tax-payers of California who are in trouble because of Medi-Cal.

The governor pointed out that costs of this free medical program went up $100 million this year, and said that within two years, it will be costing one billion dollars, which is about a fifth of all the expenses of state government for the current fiscal year.

"Unless the legislature overhauls Medi-Cal," he said, "we will need a tax increase every year, just to pay for this program."

IN BOILING DOWN the situation to a problem bereft of emotion and politics, the governor brought out some hard facts concerning the Medi-Cal program. He said:

"We've reduced non-essential medical services so that we can continue to give life-saving medical care to those on welfare and to another 160,000 who need help in time of illness."

"The state Supreme Court has ruled that we must throw these 160,000 back on the counties and the property taxpayers instead of eliminating these non-essential services."

"We have asked the Legislature to tell the court they intended us to have flexibility for running the program efficiently and sensibly."

"Apparently some legislators would rather ask the people for more taxes each year, rather than apply common sense to this problem."

THE PROBLEM now appears to be not how much medical service the taxpayers want to give people on welfare and the medically indigent, but how much the taxpayers can afford.

The full brunt of the billion-dollar tax increases imposed by the 1967 Legislature has not as yet been felt by the public, and won't be until April 15 when the new income taxes go into effect. It is the policy of politicians to feed out unpleasant news in as small doses as possible, to avoid public resentment becoming even more widespread than it is.

If a soft-hearted legislature continues to insist on the payment of taxes beyond the call of necessity, resentment could well become fury.

There Is No One To Enforce Rules

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Dec. 1 poses the question, "is there no one to enforce the rules?" and the answer is "no one." The administrators of the state-supported schools, colleges and universities have abdicated their roles as proctors, paid by the state, to preserve decent standards of order and decorum, and the academic community no longer commands the respect of the public.

The administrators have capitulated to the sophomoric hypotheses of fog-bound intellectuals whose mental colorblindness makes them unable to perceive the difference between liberty and license, and to the strange counsel of a group of clergymen who preach the gospel of anarchy. Their actions indicate that they pusillanimously accept the dicta of bearded bums who speak for the activists, that only the students should make the rules and that only the students know what should be taught. At San Francisco State they threaten to close down the college unless the president joins them in the chant "Sex is Allah, and Allah is Sex and Jeff Pollard is its Prophet."

I venture the prediction that California schools are in for some lean years. It is a solid fact of life that these institutions exist through the suffering of the taxpaying voter. In the matter of education he tends to be permissive but there are limits to his patience. He has already shown his displeasure in the defeat of numerous bond issues in this county during the past few months and I wonder how successful a 385 million dollar bond issue for expansion of the University of California would be if presented to the voters at this time.

Reports On Schools 'Yellow Journalism'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

What is the I-J trying to prove by its "yellow" journalism techniques against schools (particularly San Rafael) in the past few weeks?

1. A front page column about the hiring of a wrongfully maligned teacher from Paradise.

2. A front page accusation of violation of the Brown Act with a commonly held pre-board agenda meeting.

3. A front page expose of a high school blackout.

The teacher was hired with little fanfare and the high school blackout was further explained as a minor incident — these articles appeared lost on inner pages of the paper on following days. (I read the whole newspaper but how many actually read the I-J from cover to cover?)

And now tonight the reason behind the loss of bond issues on the editorial page — so Gallinas does have three vacant classrooms that are being used for other purposes as there are no multipurpose rooms in the elementary schools. Besides the needed classrooms are not in the Santa Venetia area as the bond publicity plainly pointed out. Has the I-J counted the portable classrooms at Davidson Junior High? Has the I-J visited the San Rafael schools on rainy days to witness the portable classrooms in classrooms? Has the I-J seen the number of "wet" students — clothes, shoes, etc. — as there are few covered walk areas from building to building? Take a tour sometime—it would help!

Instead of hindering the schools with yellow journalism it might do well to get all the facts and then proceed with fair journalism practices.

Mrs. BEVERLEY M. TANEM
Santa Venetia

(Editor's note: In the polling place at Gallinas School, where the three classrooms are vacant and residents presumably were aware of that, the votes were: High school bond issue No. 1, yes 103, no 120; high school bond issue No. 2, yes 99, no 125; elementary school bond issue, yes 95, no 127. These were among the highest "no" percentages in the election.)

'Vote No On All School Bond Issues'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Several articles have appeared in local papers lately in regard to the several school bond issues that failed to pass in recent elections.

Not one of these letters has made any effort to suggest why such failures occurred. Usually it is blamed on public apathy to the issues and a lack of interest in the education of our children.

It is the opinion of our association that all of the citizens who voted "no" and those who did not vote at all are very much interested in education for the children. Their reasons for a "no" vote or no vote at all were two-fold — the "no" voters wanted to very definitely register with the only weapon that they have, their vote, the fact that until all local school boards, as well as all teachers associations, definitely get behind the effort to reorganize the method of collecting local revenue, doing away with the present property tax discriminatory system, and would instruct their lobbyists in Sacramento to do likewise, they would continue to vote "no" on any and all bond issues regardless of their purpose.

It is too much to ask of our school systems? That they, who get some 60 per cent of all local revenue, definitely get behind such a plan that would reduce the monthly payments on homes by $40 a month up? We do not think it is and we very strongly suggest to all taxpayers that if these bond issues are again submitted, you vote "no" on them . . .

Mr. George R. Reilly of the State Board of Equalization has come forward with a plan, similar to the plan proposed by our association, that would bring about the above results and the governor has called a special governor's committee together to investigate fully this Reilly plan. We suggest that you get behind this Reilly plan 100 per cent. Meetings will be held all over the state — let's get this Reilly plan put into effect for the 1968-69 tax year.

Majority Tired Of Campus Violence

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to congratulate you on your recent editorial regarding the lack of rule enforcement and lawlessness on our college campuses. I am certain that the vast majority of people favor peaceful dissent and discussion, but this same majority is also getting sick and tired of the violence and lawlessness on our campuses today.

Enforcing rules and maintaining order should be basic, and if the present college administrations are unable to do this, then there should be some immediate major personnel changes in our public educational system.

Johnson Faces Growing Challenge With Kennedy In The Wings

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is in mounting political trouble.

Many believe this bleak period will pass — or at least greatly improve. Past experience would say that the Democrats can close ranks as the election draws nearer.

But there is no guarantee that things may not get worse for the President, rather than better. Right now his difficulties are multiplying, like these:

1—Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota may prove more formidable than was first thought. Nobody expects him to take the nomination, but he is providing an inviting instrument to mobilize all anti-Vietnam Democrats against LBJ and he could be sufficiently divisive to imperil the President's re-election. Professor John Kenneth Galbraith, president of Americans for Democratic Action, expects to get the ADA to endorse McCarthy, and there are undoubtedly Democratic doves who would be quite willing to punish Johnson even at the expense of electing a Republican President who would pursue much the same policy in Vietnam.

2—There may be something more to McCarthy's dump-Johnson movement than McCarthy himself. The something more is visible in the wings and his name is Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Kennedy has pronounced McCarthy's challenge to LBJ "a healthy thing for the party" and McCarthy echoed almost instantly that he wouldn't be making the challenge if Kennedy would make it.

IT CAN MEAN only one thing — that McCarthy is ready to step aside anytime Robert Kennedy is ready to take his place openly in the anti-Johnson front line. Bobby has already paved the way to be free to do this by cutting back his previous commitment to support the President for re-election. Kennedy is now disclosing that he will not endorse the President for renomination.

Even a combined Kennedy-

McCarthy parlay against LBJ would probably not be able to deny Johnson renomination but such a high-powered attempt might split the party so badly that no Democrat could win. Question: Is Senator Kennedy taking due account of the massive hostility among Democrats which he would be building for himself if he pursued such a divisionist course next year?

3—Finally, there is a broad political weakness in the Democratic party appeal which the professionals are just beginning to recognize. This is the fact that among young voters and labor the party no longer has its once compusive attraction.

SUPPORT FOR Democratic candidates among union workers is certainly waning. The main reason is that industrial workers are no longer blue collar; they are white collar and have moved into substantial middle-class affluence and to the suburbs.

There are not worried about their future; they are worried about the same things other sections of the middle class are worried about — high taxes, federal spending, education, inflation, and crime in the streets plus no small degree of anxiety bordering on anger about racial violence.

Time was when Walter Reuther could draw 100,000 union members to the annual Labor Day rally at Detroit's Cadillac Square. Now he's lucky to draw 5,000 to 6,000 to Cobo Hall. Today union members, many of whom own $13,000 homes with a $7,000 equity, are more likely to take their cars with trailer and small boat and drive to the lake.

This means that the old-style Democratic plea to the labor vote — "You've never had it so good" — is less magnetic and could easily backfire because union workers believe it isn't government that has given it to them but that they themselves have earned it.

Johnson is going to get politically stronger as the election draws nearer, but he has quite a distance to go.

Some Progress In Vietnam Fails To Stir Optimism

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The American people have been subjected to so much ill-conceived optimism over Vietnam during the last five years that they scarcely can be blamed now if they react with skepticism to any bits of news even slightly encouraging.

Thus the reaction seemed little more than a shrug when Gen. William C. Westmoreland declared in Washington that the progress of the war was such that within two years it might be possible to reduce American troop strength in Vietnam.

NOR DID IT SEEM that much more significance was attached to a report on progress of the pacification program in Vietnam which also was encouraging although in a lesser way.

That report, prepared by a computer, said that more than 11 million, or 66.1 per cent, of South Vietnam's population now lived in areas secure from Viet Cong guerrilla attack.

Last January the percentage of South Vietnamese living in secure areas had been set at 62.1

In comparison to the number of lives lost, including more than 200 Americans killed in last month's battle of Dak To alone, the percentage of gain seemed distressingly small.

And U.S. Deputy Ambassador Robert W. Komer, U.S. ambassador in charge of pacification, admitted the computer could not estimate the number of Vietnamese hearts and minds won over in the process.

PACIFICATION has been called the "second war" in South Vietnam.

But before there can be pacification there must be security, and that means progress of the war itself.

This is an unpopular war and its progress distressingly slow. But there is progress and credit is due.

And Mr. Edison would invariably reply happily, "My friend, every single soul who pushes his way through that turnstile pumps seven gallons of water into the tank on my roof."

Appreciation Of The Mutt And Depreciation Of Pseudo-Cop

After long sessions of careful planning, we made our first addition the other day. We went to the Marin County Humane Society and got a dog.

Planning is all in this kind of thing. A family planning to add dogs, cats and babies has to be careful about sequence. Cats can't come first because they won't stand for any competition. Dogs before cats is the iron rule. Babies might come first but that's another story.

Hadn't had a dog since I was a kid. There are lots of things you forget, like how they gnaw on everything within reach, and how they never seem to run out of energy, and how they get up at daylight.

We remembered about housebreaking, but not how much of a chore it is. We almost named her Printer's Devil because of all the errata she was leaving around the house.

Finally named her Pepper instead because of her black and white color, but maybe it gets the other idea across as well.

OWNING A PUPPY is a good way to recharge your emotional batteries, provided you are not the ulcer or apoplectic type. You are either hopping mad at the latest depredation or elated with the latest achievement, such as using the paper without being told or learning to sit up on the second try.

This Pepper is mostly beagle by appearances, although she barks like a cocker and a vet said she had some spaniels in her tree. At nine weeks, she is a 10-pound dog, good tempered and not too barksy, and not much put out when left alone. Blessedly, she does not whine at night.

I'm prejudiced, but I don't think I could be comfortable with a purebred dog. In the first place, a dog should not have better breeding than his master, and most people are crossbreeds. Those that aren't are no improvement.

A purebred dog doesn't even have the advantage of money, which is the only plus mark one can give most human pedigree-holders.

The properly chosen mutt will be loved for himself alone, not his ancestry or showtime potential. He will remain a member of family instead of a family valuable like grandma's diamonds.

THERE'S NO TELLING what sort of people will turn up in Sausalito.

The other night police chief Edward S. Kreins and Capt. James Wright were off duty and happened by as a patrolman was questioning a drunk.

Two more men walked by and asked what was up. Not much, said Kreins, just a policeman asking some questions, and why don't you move along?

No, said one new arrival, who had been at the Grain and Grape, we're undercover men for the Sausalito Police and you guys should split out.

There was an understandable pause before Kreins asked the pair for identification.

The two waved their billfolds rapidly and again suggested Kreins and Wright move on.

"Well, I'm the Sausalito chief of police and I don't recognize you," Kreins said. One man's "jaw dropped about 15 feet," Kreins said, but the other continued to insist he was a multi arm of the law.

The pseudo agent finally believed it when Kreins arrested him for impersonating an officer, more to get him out of the way than anything else. The charge was later reduced to being drunk in public.

Shirley Temple, Set Of Dishes Bring McNamara's Moving Day

WASHINGTON — The debate over whether Secretary Robert S. McNamara jumped or was pushed out of his Defense Department job goes on unabated in Washington. McNamara-watchers were caught flat-footed when a London bank teller leaked that the secretary of defense had been nominated to head the World Bank.

One student of Great Society upheavals was still kicking himself this week when he told me: "I should have known something was wrong when Capt. Chuck Robb didn't select McNamara as his best man for the Lynda Bird wedding."

All sorts of stories about how President Johnson and Secretary McNamara agreed to part have appeared in the newspapers and on television, and as usual I'm the only one who got the inside scoop.

IT HAS BEEN KNOWN for some time that Secretary McNamara and former screen star Shirley Temple Black disagreed on the strategy of conducting the Vietnamese war. Shirley has wanted to mine Haiphong Harbor, bomb the center of Hanoi and go for all-out victory against the enemy. She has been supported in her position by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Secretary McNamara, on the other hand, has been more cautious than Shirley, hoping to eke out some sort of settlement short of blowing up all of Southeast Asia.

President Johnson was somewhere in the middle. While he respected his secretary of defense, the Shirley Temple solution sounded more appealing as each day went by.

The President would have probably let things ride as they were, except for a casual conversation he had with McNamara a few months ago. The President asked him:

"Bob, where do you do your banking?"

half-ton each, contain 46½ square feet, and are several inches thick. They cost $5,300 to furnish and install.

Redwood Homemakers Donate To Hospital

Redwood High School's homemaking club has made unbreakable stuffed animals and Christmas tree ornaments for holiday giving to the pediatrics ward of Marin General Hospital. Money for the materials was raised by two sales of baked products.

"I have a friend at the Chase Manhattan," the secretary of defense replied.

"Have you ever thought of putting your money in the World Bank?" the President asked. "I understand if you open an account there before January you get a free set of dishes."

McNamara said, "I have the greatest respect for the World Bank, and I sure could use a free set of dishes, but I don't know anybody over there."

"I know George Woods, and I'll give him a call tomorrow."

"Gosh, Mr. President, you don't have to do that."

"Don't be silly. It's no trouble. Besides, if I get someone to open an account there, I get a free set of dishes, too."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON made a call to the World Bank the next day and talked to Woods. Much to his surprise, he discovered that not only was the World Bank short of depositors, but it was looking for a president as well.

Suddenly President Johnson got an idea. Instead of just opening an account for McNamara, he'd make him president of the World Bank. In this way Mr. Johnson could show his appreciation to his secretary of defense, and at the same time have a friend there in case the United States ever needed a loan.

The President decided to spring the announcement on McNamara as a surprise, so he didn't mention a thing about it. Secretary McNamara had forgotten about it, too, and went about his business hoping he could cool down Shirley Temple.

Then one day in London some loudmouth told a reporter that McNamara was going to be the new head of the World Bank.

THE PRESIDENT was chagrined because he wanted to break it to the secretary himself on Christmas morning. (The appointment was going to be inserted on a Christmas card and delivered to Secretary McNamara with the set of dishes.)

Unfortunately, when the story leaked the President had no choice but to confirm to McNamara that, indeed, he was going to be the new president of the World Bank.

Secretary McNamara gulped and said: "But all I wanted to do was open an account there. I didn't mean to head it up."

"Bob, you should know by now when your President does something, he does it with style."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Why Not Let Bruce Open All Mail Addressed To Brasilia?

Here is a nice note, which came in the mail early this week from a very gracious lady:

"Dear Mr. Fusselman: I always enjoy reading your 'County Comment' in the Independent-Journal. However, in your column of Nov. 17 regarding Brasilia, you stated that the capital city was spelled with an 's' and the country with a 'z'. Having been a resident of Sao Paulo for three years, I was quite sure you had been misinformed. The enclosed, I am sure will prove my point.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. G— E— K—

There was enclosed a letter head as follows:

"PADRES REDENTORISTAS
Telemaco Borda — Monte Alegre — Parana
Brasil — America Do Sul"

She also enclosed two stamps — one an air mail. They both had "BRASIL." Naturally I was convinced that the article I had read and referred to was in error and certainly thank Mrs. K. for her kindness.

OUT AT OUR OWN Brasilia we have a situation about letters, but not a very beautiful picture. We all saw the story in today's I-J (Wednesday).

"Storer Wants To Open Own Letters." Chairman Thomas T. Storer demands that letters addressed to him be given to him unopened instead of being screened by the administrator. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen insists "all five board members have equal interest in any letters addressed to the chairman of the supervisors."

Storer said that some letters addressed to him have never reached him because they were intercepted by the administrator's office.

Fusselman

Alan Bruce, the administrator, says that if he spots a letter which seems to be intended for an individual supervisor then he removes it and delivers it to the supervisor concerned. What a deal that is! Supervisor John F. McInnis said, "Many letters addressed to you (Storer) as chairman are not meant to be personal to you."

Storer insists he wants to open the mail addressed to him and said he would keep his fellow supervisors informed about all correspondence. Kettenhofen is reported to have "snapped," "I don't want to trust to your discretion . . . I don't trust your decision."

"I don't trust yours either," answered Storer. The move of $475 million in gold to the Exchange Stabilization Fund, as the special account is called, underscores U.S. determination to defend the dollar internationally from speculative attack.

President Johnson said earlier this week the attack had been "decisively repelled" at a relatively small cost in U.S. reserves.

Total U.S. reserves, including gold, convertible foreign currencies and the U.S. reserve position in the IMF, were near $15 billion at the end of October. U.S. policy, restated immediately after devaluation of the pound, is to buy and sell gold at $35 an ounce. Any increase in price would represent devaluation of the dollar.

To help keep the price at $35, the United States covers 59 per cent of all sales on the London gold market as part of a pool of seven nations.

The exact volume of London sales during the gold rush has never been revealed but Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler said U.S. gold losses would be "substantially high."

A $475 Million Gold Shift To Back Dollar

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is backing its defense of the dollar with a ready supply of $475 million in gold bullion.

The Treasury Department said yesterday it transferred that much gold from its money stock to a special fund that makes gold sales to foreign governments.

It was the largest single shift of gold in U.S. history, surpassing a $448 million movement in February 1947 to cover the original U.S. subscription to the International Monetary Fund.

The shift also dropped the monetary gold supply to its lowest level in more than 30 years.

The monetary gold stock now stands at $12.434 billion, the lowest since the $12.433 billion on July 28, 1937, after undergoing the largest weekly drop on record.

The move of $475 million in gold to the Exchange Stabilization Fund, as the special account is called, underscores U.S. determination to defend the dollar internationally from speculative attack.

President Johnson said earlier this week the attack had been "decisively repelled" at a relatively small cost in U.S. reserves.
